

DIMITRIOS P. BILLER (142730)
LDT Consulting, Inc.
15113 Sunset Blvd.
Pacific Palisades, California 90272
Telephone: (310) 459-9870
E-mail: biller_ldtconsulting@verizon.net

MARCIA DALEY (146579)
DALEY & SACKS LAW RLLP
516 Westwood Boulevard, Suite 102
Los Angeles, California 90024
310) 985-2808
marciad@daleyandsackslaw.com

Attorneys for Plaintiff
Paula Thomas

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA (WESTERN TDIVISION)

PAULA THOMAS,

Plaintiff,

vs.

THOMAS WYLDE, LLC, A
CALIFORNIA LIMITED LIABILITY
COMPANY, STEPHEN CHOI, ENILUZ
GONZALEZ, JOHN HANNA, JENE
PARK, DAVID SCHNIDER, ROGER
KUO, DOUG LEE, HILLSHORE
INVESTMENTS, S.A. A CORPORATION IN PANAMA, AND DOES 1 THROUGH 15,

Defendants.

Case No.:

COMPLAINT FOR:

1. Copyright Infringement;
2. Trademark; Infringement;
3. Intentional Misrepresentation;
4. Fraud by Concealment;
5. "RICO" Claims;
6. Unfair/Illegal Business Practices in violation of 17200 of the Business & Professions Code
7. Injunctive Relief;
8. Punitive Damages.

DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

1 NOW COMES PLAINTIFF, Paula Thomas (“Plaintiff”), and files her
2 Original Complaint in the United States District Court for the Central District of 3 California, Western Division, Riverside, California and serve the Original
4 Complaint on the Defendants: Thomas Wylde, LLC, Hillshore Investment, S.A.,
5 Stephen Choi, Eniluz Gonzalez, David Schnider, John Hanna, Jene Park, Roger
6 Kuo, and Doug Lee (collectively “Defendants”) and Does 1 through 15,
7 collectively known as “Defendants.”
8
9
10

11 Plaintiff’s prior counsel filed a bankruptcy Petition for Plaintiff’s company,
12 “Paula Dorothy Thomas Wylde, LLC” (“PDTW”); Thomas Wylde, LLC is a
13 Creditor with Plaintiff in those bankruptcy proceedings. Plaintiff’s prior counsel
14 also filed a complaint in State Court against Thomas Wylde, LLC, Jene Park and 15 John Hanna for claims that are not included in this complaint. The state Court
16 action has been pending for nearly two years and Plaintiff’s counsel never took any 17 action for injunctive relief.
18
19
20
21
22

23 Dated: June 4, 2017
24
25

26 /S/ Dimitrios P. Biller
27 Dimitrios P. Biller, Counsel for 28 Plaintiff Paula Thomas

Table of Contents

I.....	8
INTRODUCTION.....	8
II.	19
JURISDICTION.....	19
III.....	20
VENUE.....	20
IV.....	20
PARTIES.....	20
V.	21
RATIFICATION, ADOPTION, APPROVAL, AUTHORIZATION.....	21
VI.....	22
RESPONDEAT SUPERIOR/VICARIOUS RESPONSIBILTiy	22
VII.....	23
CONSPIRACY.....	23
X.	25
ALTER EGO & PIECING THE CORPORATE VEIL.....	25
ORIGINAL COMPLAINT - 3

IX.....	29
BACKGROUND.....	29
A.Personal Background and Career	29
B.“Thomas Wylde” and “Skull” Are Copyright Protected.....	30
C. Formation of “Thomas Wylde” Brand Name.....	32
E.Plaintiff Develops Cancer That Will Inhibit Her and Allow Defendants to Take Over Thomas Wylde the Brand Name	35
F. Enter Defendant Attorney David Schnider	36
G. Enter Defendant John Hanna and a “Conspiracy” and “Criminal Enterprise” is Formed.....	36
H.Enter Defendant Stephen Choi and Hillshore Investments, S.A.....	38
I. Purchase Agreement Constitutes a Fraudulent Instrument.....	39
X.	43
FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION.....	43
XI.....	56
SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION	56
XII.....	67

1 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION 67

2
3 A.Misrepresentations of Material Fact Defendants Made to Plaintiff..... 69

4 B.False Representations of Material Fact in the Purchase Agreement..... 71

5
6 C.Material Misrepresentations of Material Fact Regarding the Employment
7 Agreement..... 72

8
9 D.Defendants “Intended” to Make False Statements of Material Fact..... 73

10
11 E. Plaintiff did not have any “Knowledge” that the Statements of Material Fact
12 Were False..... 76

13
14 F.Defendants Knew that Plaintiff Lacked Knowledge the Statements of Material
15 Facts Were False 77

16
17 G.Plaintiff Reasonably Relied on Defendants Verbal and Written Communications
18 that were Fraudulent..... 78

19
20 H. Plaintiff Sustain Harm and Damages 79

21 XIII. 79

22
23 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION 79

24
25 A. Defendants Owed Plaintiff a Fiduciary Duty of Reasonable Care and Loyalty 80

26
27 B.Defendants Concealed Material Facts from Plaintiff to Make Representations
28 Fraudulent..... 80

1	C.Defendants Intended to Conceal Material Facts from Plaintiff.....	82
2
3	D.Defendants Had Actual Knowledge that Plaintiff did not know about the
4	Concealment of Material Facts	84
5
6	E.Plaintiff Did Not Know and Could Not Have Known of the Material Facts that
7	Defendants Concealed.....	85
8
9	G. Plaintiff Sustain Harm and Damages	86
10	XIV.....	87
11
12	FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION	87
13
14	A.Mail Fraud.....	90
15
16	B.Wire Fraud.....	91
17
18	C.Criminal Infringement of a Copyright.....	92
19
20	D.Trafficking in Counterfeit Goods.....	93
21
22	E.Transportation of Stolen Goods and Articles of Counterfeiting	94
23
24	F.Laundering of Monetary Instruments	95
25
26	G. Transmission of Monetary Transactions Derived from Specified Unlawful
27	Activities.....	98
28	XIV.....	100
	SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION.....	100

1 XV. 106

2 PRAYER FOR PUNITIVE DAMAGES 106

3 XV. 107

4 REMEMDIES AND PRAYERS 107

I.

INTRODUCTION

1. This case arises out of an international and nationwide “criminal enterprise” and conspiracy by and between all Defendants. The purpose of the scheme was to wrongfully destroy the business known as “Paula Dorothy Thomas Wylde, LLC” (“PDWT”) and to steal Plaintiff’s valuable and coveted designs and brand name (“Thomas Wylde”) in violation of copyright and trademark laws of the United States. Defendants, Jene Park (“Park”), John Hanna (“Hanna”), Doug Lee (“Lee”), and Roger Kuo (“Kuo”) created a new business entity called Thomas Wylde, LLC only after Thomas Wylde Holdings, LLC (“TW Holdings”), of which Plaintiff was the sole member and to which Plaintiff had assigned her intellectual property, had secured a loan from CBC Partners I, LLC. Plaintiff then bought 64 Units of Membership in Thomas Wylde, LLC, for $3,200.00 that amounted to 32% equity ownership in Thomas Wylde, LLC, when Park, Hanna, Kuo and Lee had acquired their Units at highly reduced rates.

2. Defendants then set in motion their scheme to eliminate Plaintiff from her company. Defendants arranged for the wire transmission of the aggregate amount of $9,200,000.00 from Panama/Spain to Los Angeles, California. The establishment of Thomas Wylde, LLC was necessary so the Defendants could launder “dirty money” through that business and re-distribute the “clean” money to

1 Defendants in a pattern of racketeering activities in violation of the RICO Act.
2 Defendants never informed Plaintiff of this scheme; Defendants fraudulently
3 induced Plaintiff to sign the Agreement to Purchase Membership Interest
4 (“Purchase Agreement”) and the Thomas Employment Agreement (“Employment
5 Agreement”) to further consummate the fraud. (Exhibits “1” and “2”) These 6 documents served as the fraudulent instruments to illegally remove Plaintiff from 7 Thomas Wylde, LLC. Defendants: Hillshore Investments, S.A., a Panamanian
8 corporation (“Hillshore”), Stephen Choi (“Choi”), and Eniluz Gonzalez, a
9 Venezuelan national (“Gonzalez”) were responsible for and instrumental in wire 10 transferring the aggregate sum of $9,200,000.00, and conspired to and entered into 11 a “criminal enterprise” with Defendants: Thomas Wylde, LLC, Hanna, Park, 12 David Schnider (“Schnider”), Kuo and Lee, a criminal enterprise designed to 13 wrongfully deprive Plaintiff of her property, including her company, her patterns
14 and molds, and her intellectual property rights, allowing Defendants to freely
15 infringe Plaintiff’s copyrights and trademarks through the sale of counterfeit 16 garments, apparel and accessories, both internationally and throughout the United
17 States, in violation of 17 U.S.C. §§ 106A, 201, 04, 205, 501, 502, 503 and 504; 15
18 U.S.C. §§ 1114, 1116, 1072, 1121, 1125, 1127. The Defendants further engaged 19 and continue to engage in a pattern of racketeering through national and 20 international commerce in violation of the Racketeering Influence Corruption Act
21

1 under 18 U.S.C. §§1961, 1962, 1964 and numerous criminal acts in violation of
2 specific federal criminal statutes contained in 18 U.S.C. §§1961.
3

4 3. Plaintiff is the designer of garments, footwear, headwear, jewelry,
5 apparel and related accessories that sold throughout the United States and 6 internationally. Defendants have illegally removed Plaintiff in direct violation of 7 the Employment Agreement between Thomas Wylde, LLC and Plaintiff. Plaintiff
8 built her brand and apparel line, Thomas Wylde, into a chic, avant-garde brand of 9 international acclaim that quickly and steadily gained popularity in its decade
10 following its launch. Plaintiff personally designed the clothes, footwear, and 11 accessories, as well as all copyrighted fabric prints, trademarked logos, names, and 12 words associated with the Thomas Wylde brand. Defendants are illegally using the 13 trademarked names and logos, and the copyrighted fabric prints to promote and sell
14 inferior quality clothing that is diluting the name and reputation of Thomas.
15 Defendants are replicating Plaintiff's original designs for sale in the open market.
16 Defendants are using Plaintiff's patterns and molds, as well as her protected marks
17 and copyrighted fabric prints to also produce new apparel (e.g., menswear, 18 handbags, footwear, etc.) under the name of Thomas Wylde, LLC, intentionally 19 misleading the public, because it is commonly known in the fashion industry that 20 Plaintiff is the designer who founded the Thomas Wylde line of haute couture
21 garments, footwear, bags, head ware, jewelry and accessories. Defendants are

1 falsely advertising that Park is the designer and creator of the Thomas Wylde
2 brand, and that Thomas Wylde, LLC is the manufacturer and retailer of these 3 counterfeit garments and accessories, further damaging Plaintiff's name and 4 reputation. The counterfeit garments allegedly designed and manufactured by 5 Defendants are sold throughout the United States and internationally, counterfeit
6 garments that contain Plaintiff's copyrighted prints and trademark protected
7 names, words, and logos, causing confusion in the marketplace and misleading the 8 public to believe that these grossly inferior goods were designed and produced by 9 Plaintiff. Defendants have generated substantial revenue and income from the sale
10 of these inferior products only because Defendants infringed on Plaintiff's
11 copyright and trademark rights, using Plaintiff's molds and patterns.

12
13
14
15
16
17 4. Defendants literally and figuratively have attempted to "destroy"
18 Plaintiff, something Defendant Hanna had told numerous people he was going to 19 do. Plaintiff is a breast cancer survivor and at all relevant times was sick, ill and/or 20 under treatment when Defendants committed their frauds. Defendants' fraud, 21 compounded by her ill health, put Plaintiff in a state of clinical depression. After 22 the Purchase Agreement and Employment Agreement were signed in December
23 2014, Defendants intentional created a hostile and discriminatory work
24 environment for Plaintiff, putting her in very stressful and depressing situations 25 thereby creating a hostile and discriminatory work environment designed to

1 degrade Plaintiff in the eyes of her staff in an attempt to cause her to voluntarily
2 resign from Thomas Wylde, LLC. Plaintiff's dedication and loyalty to her art and
3 the brand she had established would not allow Plaintiff to abandon her legacy by 4 resigning. Tired of waiting for Plaintiff to resign, and taking advantage of 5 Plaintiff's ill health, Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment by way of e-
6 mail correspondence to Plaintiff's counsel. After Defendants wrongfully
7 terminated Plaintiff, refusing to comply with the Employment Agreement that
8 required Defendants to pay Plaintiff a severance package of $300,000.00 per year
9 for three years and applicable bonuses, Plaintiff sought unemployment benefits.
10 Defendants', however, bent on causing more harm and injury to Plaintiff, opposed
11 Plaintiff's application, leading to an investigation of Defendants' allegations by the 12 EED. Upon completing its investigation of Defendant's misrepresentations, 13 however, the EDD determined Defendants' allegations to be meritless, and 14 continued Plaintiff's benefits. Defendants appealed but dismissed the appeal the 15 day before the hearing.

22 5. At the end of the day, this case is about a group of thieves who sought
23 Plaintiff out, took advantage of her disabilities (cancer), disabilities which 24 Defendants intentionally exacerbated by creating a hostile work environment to 25 which only Plaintiff was subjected, and worked together in a conspiracy organizing
26 a "criminal enterprise" to steal Plaintiff's business and property, the culmination
27

1 of a lifetime of work as well as personal and professional accomplishments. There
2 are two bundles of fraud committed in this case: (a) the transactions involving the
3 international sale of Thomas Wylde, LLC to Hillshore Investment, S.A., a
4 Panamanian corporation, Stephen Choi and Eniluz Gonzalez, a Venezuelan
5 national, through fraudulent instruments, i.e., the Purchase Agreement and 6 Employment Agreement, an international transaction that resulted in a series of 7 wire transfers totaling $9,200,000.00 from Panama/Spain to the United States
8 (there were additional transactions subsequent to the $2,000,000.00 reflected in the 9 Purchase Agreement), and (b) the sale of counterfeit garments and accessories
10 internationally and throughout the United States containing the names, words, 11 symbols and fabric prints to and of which Plaintiff owns the copyright and 12 trademark. If any case required a finding of actual damages, disgorgement, treble
13 damages, exemplary damages, punitive damages, and attorney fees/litigation costs,
14 it is this case. Moreover, Plaintiff requests that the United States District Court
15 issue a Temporary Injunction and Preliminary Injunction before trial, and 16 Permanent Injunction after trial, to stop the irreparable harm Plaintiff has and 17 continues to sustain.

18
19 6. Plaintiff further seeks Injunctive Relief under Copyright Law,
20 Trademark Law, and the RICO Act; a Temporary Restraining Order and a 21 Preliminary Injunction:

- 1 a. Defendants are prohibited from selling any of Plaintiffs' assets, including,
2 without limitation, any clothing, footwear, bags, menswear, headwear,
3 jewelry, accessories, and apparel that uses and misappropriates Plaintiff's 4 trademarks and copyrights, as well as all patterns and molds related to the 5 Thomas Wylde brand;
6
7
8 b. Defendants are prohibited from designing any clothes, footwear, bags,
9 menswear, head ware, jewelry, accessories and apparel that misappropriates
10 Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights and/or misuses Plaintiff's patterns and 11 molds;
12
13
14 c. Defendants are prohibited from developing, creating, manufacturing, 15 promoting and advertising in print, via commercials, photographs, video and 16 web-sites/internet any clothes, footwear, bags, menswear, head ware,
17 jewelry, accessories and apparel that misappropriates Plaintiff's trademarks
18 and copyrights and/or uses Plaintiff's patterns and molds;
19
20
21 d. Defendants are prohibited from designing, manufacturing, distributing,
22 selling wholesale, retail, through fashion shows, whether in e-commerce or 23 brick-and-mortar stores, any clothing, footwear, bags, menswear, headwear,
24 jewelry, accessories and apparel that misappropriates Plaintiff's trademarks
25 and copyrights and/or which uses Plaintiff's patterns and molds;
26
27
28

- 1 e. Defendants are ordered to search for, collect, gather, assemble, store and
2 safeguard in one location that is convenient for Plaintiff to conduct an
3 inspection of all assets, including all clothing, footwear, bags, menswear,
4 headwear, jewelry, accessories, apparel, patterns, molds, portfolios,
5 advertisements, publications, marketing material, graphics, video and any/all
6 physical and electronic items ("ESI") that depict in any way the trademark
7 and copyright protected items, whether registered or in common law.
8
9
10
11 f. The storage facility must have sufficient space, light, room, and ventilation
12 to protect the assets and property and to allow for the efficient and effective
13 inspection of all assets within the longer of 30 days or until Plaintiff,
14 Plaintiff's counsel and agents/employees/experts/assistants have completed
15 the inspection, which inspection shall continue day-to-day starting at 9:00
16 a.m. and ending at 6:00 p.m. every day until completed;
17
18
19 g. All clothes, bags, shoes, menswear, apparel, advertisements, publications, 20 marketing material, and any/all physical and electronic items ("ESI") that 21 depict in any way the trademark protected items must be properly organized
22 for the inspection by categories of items;
23
24
25 h. Defendants shall produce for Plaintiff's inspection within 30 days all
26 contracts that Defendants signed from July 2014 to the present time
27 concerning: (a) all documents and ESI related to any and all moneys injected
28

1 into Thomas Wylde, LLC, (b) all documents and ESI related to all
2 expenditures of Thomas Wylde, LLC, (c) the manufacturing process of
3 apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear,
4 headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks
5 and copyrights, both registered and in common law, (d) the distribution of
6 apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear,
7 headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks
8 and copyrights, both registered and in common, (e) the sale (retail and 9 wholesale) of apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all
10 clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing
11 Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common law,
12 (f) contracts between any and all the Defendants and any third party entity or 13 individual pertaining to or affecting Thomas Wylde, LLC, PDTW, LLC,
14 Plaintiff, and the Thomas Wylde brand, and (g) any electronically stored
15 information ("ESI") in the computer systems and web-site for Thomas
16 Wylde, LLC that includes Plaintiff's trademark and copyrights, both
17 registered and in common law;

- 18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25 i. Thomas Wylde, LLC and all Defendants must make available for Plaintiff's
26 and Plaintiff counsel's inspection within 30 days of all Profits and Losses
27 Statements, balance sheets, QuickBooks data, tax returns for both state and 28

1 federal for all Defendants, accounting, receivables, all documents regarding
2 the sales of all apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all
3 clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing
4 Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common law, as
5 well as all expenditures, inventory of all apparel and accessories, including,
6 without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and
7 handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered
8 and in common law, patterns, molds, books and records, minutes of any
9 meetings of officers, directors, managing agents, bank statements and wire
10 transfers of money, owner withdraws, employee benefits and
11 wages/earnings, all salaries, and distribution of anything of value to any
12 persons having any ownership interests in Thomas Wylde, LLC. All
13 financial documents produced in compliance with this demand shall cover
14 the span from the organization of Thomas Wylde, LLC in June 22, 2014
15 through the present;

- 16
17
18
19
20
21
22 j. Defendants must comply within 30 days from the date the order is issued
23 and provide declarations of individuals (not attorneys) with personal
24 knowledge regarding all steps taken to comply with the Order;
25
26 k. Defendant must immediately (within 5 calendar days) return all assets, 27 including, without limitation, all apparel and accessories, such as all
28

1 clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing
2 Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common law, as
3 well as all patterns and molds that Defendants have in their custody, control
4 and/or possession;
5

- 6
7 l. Defendants must stop doing business as "Thomas Wylde, LLC" and cannot
8 open a new business that infringes on Plaintiff's copyrights and trademarks,
9 either registered or in common law, or which uses Plaintiff's patterns and 10 molds;
11

- 12 m. Defendants must deposit in an escrow account controlled by a neutral, third
13 party any and all assets obtained by Thomas Wylde, LLC and in the 14 possession of Jene Park, John Hanna and/or John Hanna's girlfriend (Tasha 15 Hess), Stephen Choi, Eniluz Gonzalez, Doug Lee, Roger Kuo, and David 16 Schnider, and their respective spouses, or any other individual associated 17 with any of the Defendants;
18
19

- 20
21 n. Recovery of any and all Thomas Wylde, LLC's designs/apparel that has
22 been gifted and/or loaned to any celebrities and/or PR, press/media, people;
23

- 24 o. Bringing back all Thomas Wylde, LLC inventory and assets, including 25 production samples; patterns; molds; etc. from wherever they may be 26 domestically and abroad, e.g. Korea; Paris; Milan; China; Russia; etc.; and 27
28

p. Take down all e-commerce; removing inventory from all brick-and-mortar stores, both domestically and abroad, that carry Thomas Wylde, LLC assets/inventory.

II.

JURISDICTION

(Plaintiff refers to and incorporates the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 6)

7. This Honorable Court has subject matter jurisdiction because there are specific federal questions at issue under 17 U.S.C. §§ 106(A), 17 U.S.C. §§ 201(a), 201(d), 204(a), 205, 501, 502, 503, 504, 505 and 506; 15 U.S.C. §§ 1127, 1051, 1072, 1121, 1114, 1125, 1125(c), 116(a), 1117(a) and 1125(c); and 18 U.S.C. §§ 1961, 1962, 1963.

8. This Honorable Court has personal jurisdiction over all Defendants. Defendants are residents of the County of Los Angeles. Defendant Hillshore Investment, S.A. is located in Panama, but has injected itself into the commerce, market, and fashion industry in California and New York. It is reaping the benefits of the banking and financial industry as well as the fashion industry. It is causing harm to residents of the State of California and citizens of the United States. It is part of a conspiracy and criminal enterprise that involves persons and businesses in California in violation of the copyright laws, trademark laws and RICO Act. It

1 “invested” $2,000,000.00 into Thomas Wylde, LLC as of December 2014, but
2 increased that “investment” to $9,200,000.00 as of August 2015. Without this
3 infusion of money, Thomas Wylde, LLC would not be able to conduct legal and 4 illegal business in California. It used and relied on the banking and financial 5 institutions of California. It is now the “owner” of Thomas Wylde, LLC. It is 6 identified as an “investor” in the Purchase Agreement of Thomas Wylde, LLC.
7
8

9 III.

10 VENUE

11 (Plaintiff refers to and incorporates the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 12 through 8)
13
14

15 9. The United States District Court for the Central District of California, 16 Western Division, Los Angeles, is the proper venue for this case because the 17 Defendants, except for Hillshore Investment, S.A. reside in the County of Los 18 Angeles, and Thomas Wylde, LLC has its principle place of business in the County
19 of Los Angeles.
20
21

22 IV.

23 PARTIES

24 (Plaintiff refers to and incorporates the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 25 through 9)
26
27

28 10. Plaintiff, Paula Thomas, is a resident of Riverside County;

21. All of the Defendants ratified, adopted, approved and authorized the conduct, behavior, actions, inactions, tactics, statements, pronouncements, omissions to act when there was a legal duty to act and decisions related to the wrongful taking of Thomas Wylde, LLC in violation of 17 U.S.C. §§ 106(A), 17 U.S.C. §§ 201(a), 201(d), 204(a), 205, 501, 502, 503, 504, 506; 15 U.S.C. §§ 1127, 1051, 1072, 1121, 1114, 1125, 1125(c), 116(a), 1117(a) and 1125(c); 18 U.S.C. §§ 1961, 1962, 1963, fraud, fraud by concealment, wire fraud, and mail fraud; Penal Code §§182, 484, 500, 501, 502, and 503; and fraudulent, illegal and unfair business practices in violation of Business and Professions Code §17200 and 17500. Each of the Defendants served as the agents for all other Defendants. All the Defendants took some action, engaged in behavior, made statements, failed to act when there was a duty to act knowing their conduct would be ratified, authorized, adopted and approved by the other Defendants.

VI.

RESPONDEAT SUPERIOR/VICARIOUS RESPONSIBILITY

(Plaintiff refers to and incorporates the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 21)

22. The individual Defendants (persons) served as the agents and employees for Thomas Wylde, LLC and Hillshore Investments, S.A. At all relevant times, the individual Defendants acted within the scope of their authority

1 and employment regarding the factual and legal allegations set forth in the 2 complaint. Thomas Wylde, LLC and Hillshore Investments, S.A. are liable for 3 their conduct. Defendants, Thomas Wylde, LLC and Hillshore Investments, S.A.
4 explicitly and/or impliedly authorized, ratified, approved and adopted the wrongful
5 acts of the individual Defendants through the Directors, Officers, Managing
6 Agents, Managers, and agents of those corporate Defendants.
7

8 VII.

9 CONSPIRACY

10
11 (Plaintiff refers to and incorporates the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 12 through 22)
13

14
15 23. All Defendants were and continue to be co-conspirators with the goal
16 of taking over Thomas Wylde, LLC. That goal involved: (a) selling off the apparel
17 and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear,
18 jewelry, scarves, and handbags that Plaintiff designed and/or which used Plaintiff's
19 patterns, molds, as well as Plaintiff's copyrights and trademarks, both registered
20 and in common law; (b) misusing the name of and brand Thomas Wylde by selling
21 merchandise using the Thomas Wylde brand, patterns and molds, as well as 22 Plaintiff's original designs that is substantially inferior to the apparel and
23 accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry,
24 scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both 25
26
27
28

1 registered and in common law, that were taken to market under Plaintiff's
2 supervision and guidance; (c) infringing of Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights,
3 both registered and in common law; (d) engaging in mail and wire fraud; (e)
4 falsely advertising Plaintiff's image, reputation, apparel and accessories, including,
5 without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags
6 containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common
7 law based on and/or using Plaintiff's original designs, as well as other designs that 8 Plaintiff would never have created; and (f) engaging in fraudulent, illegal, and 9 unfair business practices.
10
11
12

13
14 24. Defendants agreed to commit these actions and make statements that 15 amounted to the tortious conduct and violations of laws. The Defendants engaged
16 in actions, conduct, behavior, including the making of statements,
17 pronouncements, as well as omissions to act when there was a duty to act in a
18 desire to fulfill the goals of the conspiracy and "criminal enterprise." Defendants
19 intended to commit these actions, conduct, behavior, and to make these statements 20 and pronouncements, as well as the omissions to act when there was a legal duty to 21 act, to accomplish the illegal employment practices, violation of law, other torts,
22 and the conspiracy and "criminal enterprise."
23
24
25

26 25. Each of the co-conspirator Defendants took some action, engaged in 27 some conduct, made certain statements, and avoided taking appropriate action
28

1 when there was a legal duty to act in order to fulfill the goals and missions of the
2 conspiracy and “criminal enterprise.”
3

4 X.

5 ALTER EGO & PIERCING THE CORPORATE VEIL

6
7 (Plaintiff refers to and incorporates the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1
8 through 25)

9
10 26. Defendants Stephen Choi, Eniluz Gonzalez, and Hillshore Investments,
11 S.A must be considered as a single person because there are not any separate 12 interests. Defendant Hillshore Investments, S.A. is a corporation incorporated
13 under the laws of Panama. The corporate form would do an injustice to Plaintiff.
14 For example, the individual defendants and Hillshore Investment, S.A.
15 commingled funds and other assets, and there was and is a failure to segregate
16 money, assets, and funds. Hillshore Investment, S.A. transferred via wire transfers
17 from Spanish bank millions of dirty dollars to Thomas Wylde, LLC that was then
18 “cleaned” and transferred to Stephen Choi and Eniluz Gonzalez. The individual
19 Defendants have treated the assets, money and funds of Hillshore Investment. S.A.
20 as their own. There was and continues to be a confusion over the separation
21 records. Hillshore Investment, S.A. and the individual Defendants use the same
22 location and premises for business operations. Hillshore Investment, S.A.s
23 primary business is a mystery due to the absence of proper records and 24
25
26
27
28

1 documentation. All that is currently known about Hillshore Investments, S.A. is
2 that it has become the “supra-majority owner” of Thomas Wylde, LLC operating
3 out of the same location, with Thomas Wylde, LLC being its sole investment.
4 Hillshore Investment, S.A. is a mere shell, instrumentality or conduit for a single
5 venture or the business of an individual and family member – illegal internet
6 gambling and tax evasion. There is a total and complete disregard of legal 7 formalities.
8

9
10
11 27. Defendants Stephen Choi, Eniluz Gonzalez, and Hillshore
12 Investments, S.A have to be considered as a signal unit of operations. Defendant
13 Hillshore Investment, S.A. allegedly has only one “employee”, Eniluz Gonzalez as 14 the sole owner of and General Manager for the enterprise. It does not engage in 15 any legitimate business activities that can generate money; it is not a manufacture 16 of goods, wholesale or retail seller of goods; it does not have any connection to the 17 fashion design world; it is not an investment bank or business that invests money 18 from third parties; it is not a registered corporation with a specific business to 19 operate. As of the filing of this Complaint, the only illegitimate business purpose
20 that Hillshore, S.A. has is the infusion of “dirty” money into Thomas Wylde, LLC
21 to get “cleaned” and redistributed so as to not be detected.
22

23
24
25
26 28. When Defendants stopped using PDTW, LLC for their illicit 27 purposes, and in order to further their goal to remove and “destroy” Plaintiff, they 28

1 opened Thomas Wylde, LLC to be the cleaner of dirty money. Defendants
2 Hillshore Investment, S.A., Stephen Choi and Eniluz Gonzalez started to infuse
3 millions of dollars into Thomas Wylde, LLC without a written agreement as to 4 why that money was transferred to Thomas Wylde, LLC. Defendants opened new 5 bank accounts, notified purchasers of garments that the name of the business has 6 changed, altered all marketing and advertising materials to state "Thomas Wylde,
7 LLC", created new business cards, opened new credit card accounts, and changed
8 the name on all contracts. The Units of Membership were divided between the 9 individual Defendants. Defendants established Thomas Wylde, LLC not for any 10 legitimate business purposes, because there was no reason to establish this 11 corporation, for anything other than the personal benefit of the individual
12 Defendants to create a company that would eventually remove Plaintiff from any 13 ownership. Defendants never obtained Plaintiff's authority to stop business
14 operations through PDTW, LLC and commence business operations through 15 Thomas Wylde, LLC. Plaintiff did not give any authority to issue Units of 16 Membership by Thomas Wylde, LLC. Defendant Thomas Wylde, LLC used the 17 same office and the same attorney that PDTW, LLC used. Defendants used
18 Thomas Wylde, LLC as a conduit, instrumentality and shell for the moneys
19 generated by Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi, and Gonzalez. The individual
20 Defendants failed to maintain an arm's length relationship with Hillshore
21

1 Investment, S.A. and Thomas Wylde, LLC; they treated the money/assets first in
2 PDTW, LLC and then in Thomas Wylde, LLC as their own. The Defendants
3 intentionally concealed and misrepresented the identity of the responsible
4 ownership, management and financial interests of Thomas Wylde, LLC and
5 Hillshore Investment, S.A. Based on these facts, and others, (1) there is such a
6 unity of interest that the separate personalities of the corporations no longer exist;
7 and (2) inequitable results will follow if the corporate separateness is respected.
8 Essentially, "Thomas Wylde, LLC", Hillshore Investment, S.A., Stephen Choi, 9 Eniluz Gonzalez, David Schnider, John Hanna, Jene Park, Doug Lee and Roger
10 Kuo are a single entity. Justice can only be served to treat all Defendants as a 11 single entity because there were no separate interests.

12
13
14
15
16 29. In July 2014, Jene Park was the Chief Operator Officer for PDTW,
17 LLC, and she maintained that position at Thomas Wylde, LLC. In July 2014,
18 David Schnider was the in-house counsel for PDTW, LLC and he maintained that
19 position with Thomas Wylde, LLC. In July 2014, John Hanna was a
20 consultant/advisor to Plaintiff and PDTW, LLC, but then became the Chief
21 Executive Officer of Thomas Wylde, LLC. The other Defendants were investors
22 in Thomas Wylde, LLC that was created in July 2014, soon to become owners of 23 the business. Defendants intentionally kept Plaintiff in the dark about this 24 situation.

1 IX.

2 BACKGROUND

3
4 (Plaintiff refers to and incorporates the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1
5 through 29)

6 A. Personal Background and Career

7
8 30. Plaintiff was born on February 20, 1966 and spent most of her life in the 9 fashion industry, first as a model and then as a fashion designer. At the age of 17,
10 Plaintiff was discovered and cast as a “Bond Girl”, appearing in the iconic feature
11 film starring Roger Moore, “A View to a Kill”. Upon appearing in “A View to a 12 Kill”, Plaintiff was discovered by a modeling agency and, from 1984 to 2000
13 Plaintiff enjoyed a successful career as a high-fashion model, both on print and 14 runway, with a global presence including New York, Los Angeles, London, Milan, 15 Japan, Paris, and Russia, among others. From 2000 to 2003 Plaintiff returned to 16 London where she worked with Julien McDonald, a renowned fashion designer
17 and friend, to help him rebuild his company. Under the tutelage of Julien
18 McDonald, Plaintiff learned the art of fashion design, quickly becoming Julien
19 McDonald’s co-designer. From 2003 to 2005 Plaintiff and Julien McDonald were 20 sought out by a headhunting firm for the elite brand, Givenchy, in Paris. After 21 working with Julien McDonald, who accepted the position, to establish him at the 22 design house of Givenchy, Plaintiff returned to Los Angeles, where she worked as 23
24
25
26
27
28

1 a freelance designer and stylist accepting assignments in Los Angeles and Milan,
2 Italy. It was during this period of time that Plaintiff began to develop her own line,
3
4 having designed her first skull, the Louie Skull, in 2003. Plaintiff had been in the 5 fashion industry for approximately 20 years before launching her own original
6 design line, Thomas Wylde, named after her father (Thomas) and her great-
7 grandmother (Wylde). During her 20-year tenure in the fashion industry, having
8 worked with such notables as Dior, Jean-Paul Gautier and Valentino, Plaintiff 9 developed her own unique style, techniques, concepts, and methodologies to 10 fashion design. This 20-year trajectory in the fashion industry was instrumental 11 and absolutely necessary for Plaintiff gaining the notoriety and recognition as an 12 innovative, creative, world-famous and Industry-respected fashion designer.
13
14
15

16 B. “Thomas Wylde” and “Skull” Are Copyright Protected
17

18 28. From 2005 to 2006 Plaintiff developed, conceived and coined the 19 name Thomas Wylde as the brand representing Plaintiff’s designs, as well as the
20 apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear,
21 headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags that Plaintiff designed and took to 22 market. Plaintiff, along with her daughter, Harley Wolitzky, own the business
23 PDTW, LLC (Paula Dorothy Thomas Wylde) and Plaintiff alone owns the brand
24 name Thomas Wylde. Plaintiff alone conceived of, created, and designed various 25 marks and prints to represent Thomas Wylde and had those marks and prints
26
27
28

1 registered with the Copyright Office to protect herself and her brand. Plaintiff
2 recognized that a logo was of great importance in marketing and selling her
3 designs, so Plaintiff conceived, created and designed the logo of a “skull”, which
4 quickly became identifiable and closely associated with Plaintiff’s designs and her
5 Thomas Wylde brand. Plaintiff registered her mark, the “skull”, with the United 6 States Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”) in order to put others on notice of 7 her ownership claim obtained trademark. Exhibit “1” are the words, prints and
8 symbols/logos that Plaintiff registered with the Copyright Office and the USPTO,
9 as applicable attached to the Purchase Agreement.
10
11
12

13
14 29. David Schnider, then in-house counsel for PDTW, LLC, formed Thomas
15 Wylde Holding, LLC, which company was then dissolved in January of 2015.
16 Defendants Park, Schnider, and Hanna created “Thomas Wylde, LLC” in July
17 2014 to in order to receive funds to be wire-transferred by Defendant Hillshore
18 from Spanish banks, as well as to continue the sale of Plaintiff’s designs and 19 garments pre-existing the wrongful termination of Plaintiff, as well as counterfeit 20 copies of such garments manufactured either without Plaintiff’s knowledge or 21 authorization, or after her wrongful termination, which garments were sold using 22 the Thomas Wylde brand. Defendants, however, neither included, offered nor 23 allowed Plaintiff to be a member of the company bearing her protected mark
24 Thomas Wylde at its initial organization on July 22, 2014. Plaintiff was, instead,
25
26
27
28

1 required to purchase units of membership in Thomas Wylde, LLC – essentially her
2 company as it bore her mark and was intended to eventually lead to the dissolution
3 of PDTW, LLC.
4

5 C. Formation of “Thomas Wylde” Brand Name

6 31. Sometime between 2005 and 2006, Plaintiff obtained a $500,000.00
7 investment from Valerie Serafin to launch Thomas Wylde. On its launching,
8 Plaintiff established Thomas Wylde, Inc. with two employees, Plaintiff and Billy
9 Horn. Thomas Wylde, the brand, quickly exploded, going from a $500,000.00
10 investment to grossing approximately $9.5M by its third season. Notwithstanding 11 this success, Plaintiff dissolved Thomas Wylde, Inc. after its second season due to 12 legal issues with Valerie Serafin.
13
14
15

16 32. Plaintiff hired the firm of Liner, Yankelvics & Sunshine to represent her 17 interests in the dispute with Valerie Serafin and with regard to the dissolution of 18 Thomas Wylde, Inc. Plaintiff eventually reached a settlement with Valerie Serafin, 19 which included Plaintiff's acquisition of Valerie Serafin's interests for 20 approximately $4,000,000.00. It was at this time, before the 3rd season, that 21 PDTW, LLC and Paula Thomas, Inc. were formed. Plaintiff went to market in the 22 3rd season as Paula Thomas for TW, as Plaintiff was foreclosed from using the 23 name ‘Thomas Wylde’ because of the pending legal dispute with Valerie Seriafin.
24
25 It took Plaintiff 3 years to pay the settlement off.
26
27
28

1 D. Defendant Jene Parks and Plaintiff Form a Relationship

2 33. Defendant Park joined Plaintiff at the end of 2006 (around the 3rd or 4th
3 season), after Thomas Wylde, Inc. had been dissolved. Plaintiff had previously
4 been doing business with Park, from whom Plaintiff purchased fabric. At the time,
5 Park had a fabric distribution company, and she was already conducting business
6 with Alex Park, Plaintiff's distributor in Korea. Plaintiff was the sole creator and 7 designer of her fashion line, prints and marks. Plaintiff knew Park had connections
8 with manufacturing companies, and she realized Thomas Wylde needed an
9 infrastructure, so it was an organic process for her to hire Park. Plaintiff thought
10 she knew Park. Plaintiff also knew that Park was in talks with Erica Davies, a 11 successful designer, who, in the end, did not want to move forward with Park on 12 any business ventures.
13

14 34. Plaintiff hired Park to help Plaintiff with the Thomas Wylde line of 15 fashion as an administrator, and her duties and responsibilities included: (a)
16 overseeing production, (b) staff management, (c) day-to-day office management,
17 (d) pick-and-pack, (e) sales, and (f) distribution and shipping. Park is not a fashion
18 designer, nor did Plaintiff hire Park to design fashion for Thomas Wylde.
19

20 Defendant Park does not have the skills, abilities, talents, vision, imagination and 21 creativity to be a fashion designer. Plaintiff continued to be the creative director
22 and ambassador of the brand, having all design responsibilities, which included: (a)
23

1 creating the concept or look of the garment, (b) selecting the fabric and color for
2 the garment, (c) and directing/supervising the design teams in the creation of the 3 patterns/designs, which Plaintiff then would edit until readied for production of the 4 garment. All Thomas Wylde designs and prints were the product of Plaintiff's
5 original concepts and visions that borrow from her life. Plaintiff's childhood, 6 culture, life experiences, and passions all combine to create the designs and
7 patterns that capture Plaintiff's personality and creative spirit. Plaintiff's 8 considerable experience in the fashion industry, both as a model and a designer, is 9 what enabled Plaintiff to create and launch a highly successful and popular chic
10 line of fashion, with an original brand that rivaled Dior, Givenchy and Valentino.

15 35. From 2007 to 2013, Defendant Park gave Plaintiff the false impression
16 that she was working hard and was diligent. Joe Keyser was the Chief Financial 17 Officer for PDTW, LLC, and he brought in Michael Schiffman ("Schiffman") as a
18 potential investor, who, in the end, loaned PDTW, LLC the sum of $500,000.00,
19 charging a usurious interest rate of 18% and a security interest in Plaintiff's
20 intellectual property. This relationship went sour quickly because, Keyser would 21 embezzle money from PDTW, LLC often leaving insufficient funds to make a
22 payment on the Schiffman loan. Paul Murphy, the attorney who represented
23 PDTW in the dispute with Schiffman, assisted PDTW in reaching a settlement, 24 pursuant to which Schiffman released the security interest back to Plaintiff, and 25

1 pursuant to which he received $200,000.00. Plaintiff owns PDTW with her
2 daughter. The Schiffman debt was then transferred to Thomas Wylde, LLC, who 3 agreed to assume the debt, mistakenly believing that the security interest was still 4 in play.
5

6
7 E. Plaintiff Develops Cancer That Will Inhibit and Distract Her,
8 Allowing Defendants to Take Over the Thomas Wylde Brand

9
10 36. Plaintiff was diagnosed with cancer in 2008. Shortly after receiving this
11 diagnosis, Defendant Park sought and received permission from Plaintiff to start up
12 a t-shirt design company, "Haute Tee", and she hired Billy Horn to sell the line in 13 New York at Showroom 7. Plaintiff agreed to this arrangement on the mutual
14 understanding that Park would design/produce only tee-shirts. Shortly after 15 making this agreement, however, a friend/colleague of Plaintiff congratulated
16 Plaintiff, while she was in Paris on a sales trip, for the "second line" of design that 17 consisted of more than tee-shirts; it included cashmere with crystal, leather, etc.,
18 clear duplicates and replications of Plaintiff's distinct work and original designs
19 obviously identifiable with Plaintiff's chic brand, Thomas Wylde. Plaintiff
20 informed Defendant Park that she would be terminated unless Defendant Park
21 abandoned the Haute-Tee venture.
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 F. Enter Defendant Attorney David Schnider

2 37. Defendant Park started to take more and more control over Thomas
3 Wylde, causing problems for and confusion in the company. In 2012, Plaintiff
4 wanted to discharge CFO Joel Keyser (“Keyser”), because he had caused PDTW to 5 become embroiled in a lawsuit resulting from Keyser’s misuse of PDTW funds,
6 embezzlement and laundering of through PDTW books and accounts.
7
8 Furthermore, Defendant Park could not perform as expected. The production costs
9 increased under Defendant Park’s responsibility. Plaintiff attempted to talk to 10 Defendant Park about this issue, but Defendant Park became defensive and refused
11 to talk about it. Plaintiff asked Defendant Schnider to talk to Defendant Park about 12 the unacceptable increase costs of production, but Defendant Schnider encountered
13 the same problem –Defendant Park became defensive and evasive. Defendant
14 Schnider was “in-house counsel” for PDTW, LLC and then for Thomas Wylde,
15 LLC.
16
17
18
19
20

21 G. Enter Defendant John Hanna and a “Conspiracy” and “Criminal 22 Enterprise” is Formed

23 38. Defendant Park introduced Defendant Hanna to Plaintiff, while on a
24 sales trip in Paris in 2013. Defendant Hanna had been connected to “BCBG”, 25 where Defendant Park met him. At this time, Plaintiff retained Elsa Berry of 26 Vendome Global Partners to take Thomas Wylde designs to market place in search
27
28

1 of potential new investors. Unhappy with Vendome's performance, Plaintiff
2 confided her dissolution to Defendant Hanna, who then introduced Plaintiff to the 3 firm of Santli, Pastore & Hill for the preparation of a valuation report, which report
4 it delivered to Plaintiff on September 17, 2013. Plaintiff then engaged Defendant
5 Hanna as a consultant on an independent contractor basis to help find investors for 6 Thomas Wylde. It wasn't until Defendant Hanna brought a lender to the table and
7 the loan documents were ready for signature that Hanna first demanded a "finder's
8 fee". Plaintiff, who was on holiday, and with the financial pressures brought on by 9 the settlement of two major legal actions, capitulated and paid Defendant Hanna
10 $100,000.00 out of PDTW, LLC, a transaction Defendant Hanna insisted remain
11 secret.

12
13
14
15
16
17 39. In July of 2014, Defendant Hanna joined Thomas Wylde, LLC as the 18 CEO. Immediately after Plaintiff had executed all documents, including the 19 Employment Agreement and Purchase Agreement on December 31, 2014,
20 Defendant Hanna began to berate Plaintiff yelling at her, telling her she was "shit"
21 and her "designs are shit". Once Park and Hanna felt secure in having 22 accomplished their illicit plan and felt they no longer needed Plaintiff, Park and 23 Hanna "googled" the job description of a fashion designer, and advised Plaintiff
24 that she would no longer design for Thomas Wylde. It was at this point in time that 25 the concerted campaign of disruption and hostility toward Plaintiff was 26
27
28

1 commenced by Park and Hanna, with their interfering with her creative decisions,
2 parading 'candidates' for Plaintiff's position through Plaintiff's office, with 3 Plaintiff in the office, without making Plaintiff aware of the purpose for these
4 individuals being paraded through Thomas Wylde, LLC. In fact, when Plaintiff
5 refused to dress a singer name Cia in 2015, because Plaintiff did not believe Cia
6 was right for the brand, Defendant Hanna overruled her decision. On one
7 occasion, after all the employees had left the office, Defendant Hanna called a
8 meeting with Defendant Park and Plaintiff, at which Defendant Hanna proceeded
9 to yell and scream at Plaintiff. Defendant Hanna engaged in this behavior
10 routinely.
11
12
13
14

15 H. Enter Defendant Stephen Choi and Hillshore Investments, S.A.

16 40. Defendant Hanna found Defendant Stephen Choi as an investor in 17 Thomas Wylde, LLC. Once the investment documents were ready for execution, 18 and feeling the pressure to meet debts occasioned by the mismanagement of 19 Keyser (the aftermath), Park and Hanna, Defendant Hanna demanded another
20 finder's fee in the amount of $50,000.00. In November/December 2014, Plaintiff
21 went on holiday and became very ill. By this time Thomas Wylde, LLC was 22 organized and agreements were being negotiated, documents Hanna insisted
23 Plaintiff sign before end of year. Among these documents were the Purchase
24 Agreement (Exhibit "1") that Defendant Choi and Defendants Hanna and Park
25
26
27
28

1 negotiated, an agreement pursuant to which Defendant Hillshore Investments, S.A.
2 agreed to invest $2,000,000.00 in Thomas Wylde, LLC in return for the intellectual
3 property rights under Plaintiff's name. In return, Plaintiff would receive 64 Units
4 of Membership in Thomas Wylde, LLC, second largest shareholder, for an
5 investment of $3,200.00 and an Employment Agreement with a value of at least 6 $1,000,000.00. Defendant David Schnider had previously referred Plaintiff to 7 Andrew Apfelber at Greenberg Glusker to represent PDTW, who also represented
8 Plaintiff in the negotiations of the Purchase Agreement and the Employment
9 Agreement between Thomas Wylde, LLC and Plaintiff (Exhibit "2")
10
11
12

13 14 I. Purchase Agreement Constitutes a Fraudulent Instrument

15 41. On or about December 2014 Plaintiff agreed to pay $3,200 and to assign 16 her intellectual property interest as consideration for 64 Units of Membership in 17 Thomas Wylde, LLC and an "Employment Agreement" for Plaintiff as a 18 "Condition Precedent." Under Clause 6(f) of the Purchase Agreement the 19 following is one of the conditions precedents: "The Company's execution and 20 delivery of an employment agreement for Paula Thomas in a form mutually agreed
21 to by the parties." (Exhibit "2", pg. 3, clause 6(f)) The Purchase Agreement also 22 transferred the intellectual property rights and associated good will relating to the 23 "Thomas Wylde brand and designs, including, without limitation, any copyrights, 24 trademarks, patents, trade secrets, or any other rights therein but specifically
25
26
27
28

1 excluding Paula Thomas' name, image, likeness, biography and moral rights (IP)."

2 Exhibit "A" to the Purchase Agreement identifies that intellectual property.

3
4 Providing Plaintiff with an Employment Agreement was an essential and material
5 term of the Purchase Agreement:

6 "Plaintiff acknowledges and agrees that her obligations under the 7 Confidentiality and Intellectual Property Agreement set forth in 8 Addendum A survive the termination of this Agreement so long as 9 the mandatory bonus set forth in Section 4 and severance set forth
10 above (as applicable) is actually paid." (Emphasis added)
11

12
13 42. Defendants never fulfilled the contractual obligations of paying 14 Plaintiff a severance package and bonus. Therefore, Plaintiff's intellectual 15 property rights never transferred to Thomas Wylde, LLC.
16

17
18 43. Section 4 in the Employment Agreement states:

19 "Except as set forth in Section 9, Employee must be employed at the 20 time of payment to receive any such bonuses. Notwithstanding
21 anything contained herein, Employee shall receive a bonus that is not 22 less than 10% less than the largest bonus or aggregate bonuses paid to 23 any member of the Company's senior management team, excluding 24 any sales commissions or similar sales based on incentives. Such 25
26
27
28

1 mandatory bonus shall be paid in amounts and type of consideration
2 equivalent to such largest bonus.”
3

4 43. Clause 9 is the termination clause that only allows Defendants
5 to terminate with “Cause” under very specific situations, but also requires
6 Defendants to provide 30 days’ written notice and provide Plaintiff with a
7 30- day cure period.
8

9 H. The Purchase Agreement is Null, Void, and Illegal
10

11 44. Defendants never intended to fulfill any of the terms and conditions
12 either the Employment Agreement or the Purchase Agreement, and they intended
13 to defraud Plaintiff out of her interests in Thomas Wylde, LLC. The Employment
14 Agreement and the Purchase Agreement were signed on December 31, 2014. The 15 Employment Agreement included a three-year contract of employment for 16 $300,000.00 and a bonus. (Exhibit “3”, pg. 1, Clause 3, pg. 2, Clause 3) On or 17 about April 20, 2015 Defendants terminated Plaintiff without cause and failed to 18 inform her of any performance issues, or to give her an opportunity to “fix” any 19 such performance issues. There was no written notice of lack of performance to 20 constitute “cause” and to justify termination as demanded by the Employment
21 Agreement:
22
23
24
25

26 “9. Termination. The Company shall have the right to terminate
27

28 Employee’s employment under this Agreement at any time for Cause,

1 which termination shall be effective immediately. Termination for
2 Cause shall mean the commission of the following acts by Employee
3 that are not reasonably cured within thirty days of Employee's receipt
4 of written notice from the Company detailing the specifics the alleged 5 acts or omissions of the Employee that Company believe fit the 6 definition of Cause:
7

8
9 (i) material breach of this Agreement
10

11 (ii) intentional non-performance or mis-performance of her duties, or 12 refusal to abide by or comply with the reasonable directives of her
13 superior officers, or the Corporation's policies and procedures;
14

15 (iii) willful dishonesty, fraud, or misconduct with respect to the 16 business or affairs of the Company, that in the reasonable judgment of 17 the Manager or a Supermajority of the Membership Interest materially
18 and adversely affects the Company;
19

20 (iv) conviction or, or a plea of nolo contendere to, a felony or other 21 crime involving moral turpitude; or
22

23 (v) the commission of any act that is a conflict of interests (as defined 24 above)."
25

26 45. There are no facts or evidence that can support a finding of any 27 misconduct to justify immediate termination for cause. Moreover,
28

1 assuming, arguendo, that such facts and evidence exist, Defendants did not
 2 give Plaintiff “written notice” and 30 days to fix the problems. By August
 3 2015, Thomas Wylde, LLC, Park, Schnider, and Hanna agreed to dilute
 4 Plaintiff’s shares from 32% of the Units Membership to 1.8% and agreed to 5 sell those Units of Membership to Hillshore Investment, S.A., Stephen Choi,
 6 and Eniluz Gonzalez for $4,000,000.00. Plaintiff never authorized,
 7 approved, nor ratified the dilution of her Units. Shortly thereafter, Plaintiff
 8 filed a complaint in State Court.

12 46. Defendants continue to this day, over two and a half years, to sell of 13 thousands of pieces of assets, assets consisting of apparel and accessories, 14 including, without limitation, clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and 15 handbags that Plaintiff designed and that contain the copyright prints and designs,
 16 as well as the trademarked marks of Thomas Wylde and/or the “skull”, thereby
 17 repeatedly infringing on Plaintiff’s intellectual property rights.

21 X.

22 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

23 INFRINGEMENT OF COPYRIGHTS AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS FOR

24 MONETARY DAMAGES AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF UNDER

25 Title 17 U.S.C §§ 106, 201, 204, 205, 501, 502, 503, 504, 506

(Plaintiff refers to and incorporate the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 46)

47. Plaintiff obtained copyright protection regarding prints of fabrics with the following copyright dates and registration numbers that are identified on Exhibit A1 of the Purchase Agreement:

Title	Registration Number	Registration Date
Acid Flower	VA 1-344-484	04/14/2006
Henna Skull	VA 1-813-811	03/30/2011
Skull Flower	VAu 691-713	04/14/2006
Skull Pattern	A 1 344-483	04/14/2006
Money Print	VA 1-853-563	10/04/2012
Hidden Death Print	VA 1-853-575	10/24/2012
Ballet Bowie Print	VA 1-853-575	10/24/2012
Carpe Diem Print	VA 1-853-579	10/24/2012
Goth Moth	VA 1-853573	10/24/2012
Madame Butterfly	VA 1-853-576	10/24/2012
Samona Print	VA 1-853-576	10/24/2012
Cyclops	VA 1-907-692	09/11/2013
Louis Skull	VA 1-889-372	11/05/2013

1 Spinal Tap

2 VA 1-907-688

3 09/11/2013

4 48. Defendants have infringed on Plaintiff's copyrights and used the prints
5 on clothing and apparel without Plaintiff's permission or authorization. The fabric
6 prints are unique to Plaintiff's designs and her reputation as a designer.
7

8 Defendants took the fabric prints and illegally applied them on clothes, apparel and 9 other items that Defendants then displayed on a web-site for sale as well as on 10 fashion sales trips and at fashion shows. These garments and accessories were 11 then illustrated on fashion show promotional materials, advertisements, and 12 marketing materials, as well as on social networking sites such as Instagram and 13 Facebook. Defendants then sold these garments and accessories at grossly
14 discounted prices without Plaintiff's permission or authorization.
15
16
17

18 49. Defendants have continuously used the protected prints from 2014 to the 19 present without Plaintiff's permission and authorization to help Defendants sell, 20 promote the sale of, market, advertise, the actual designs, lines and shapes that 21 Plaintiff designed, as well as replicas of such designs, lines and shapes that 22 Plaintiff designed. Defendants have expanded their illicit use of Plaintiff's 23 copyrighted prints on other items such as handbags, footwear and menswear.
24
25 Defendants have marketed and continue to market apparel with Plaintiff's
26 copyrighted prints on the internet throughout the United States and internationally.
27
28

1 Defendants have used mail, wires, cables, and e-mail transmissions to advertise
2 and market garments using and/or bearing Plaintiff's copyrighted prints throughout
3 the United States and world without the permission or authorization from Plaintiff.
4
5 Defendants have received revenue from these illegal sales through interstate and
6 international commerce through the use of wire transfers and credit cards.
7

8 50. Defendants' illegal conduct violating the copyright laws designed to 9 protect Plaintiff have caused Plaintiff to suffer, and continues to cause Plaintiff to 10 suffer, irreparable, lasting harm and damages. Plaintiff will continue to suffer
11 irreparable harm unless the United States District Court issues a (a) temporary 12 restraining order and (b) preliminary injunction to prohibit Defendants from 13 selling, advertising, marketing, showing, displaying, promoting, publicizing,
14 presenting, and announcing any garments, apparel and/or accessories of any kind 15 that uses and/or includes Plaintiff's copyrighted print, including but not limited to 16 clothes, pants, shirts, belts, head ware, purses, footwear, t-shirts, dresses, skirts, 17 and sweaters that include Plaintiff's original prints. This request is made pursuant 18 to 17 U.S.C. §502. At her option, Plaintiff is entitled to actual damages, lost 19 profits, and/or statutory damages.
20
21
22
23
24

25 A. Criminal Infringement of Copyrights Belonging to Plaintiff

26 51. Defendants created an elaborate scheme to steal Plaintiff's copyright 27 protected prints to use on garments and accessories of substantially inferior quality,
28

1 garments that use and incorporate Plaintiff's protected property, intellectual and
2 otherwise, without Plaintiff's permission or authorization. These garments and
3 accessories are ones that Plaintiff did NOT design or are based on Plaintiff's
4 original designs and shapes, and which Defendants inject into commerce for 5 private and personal financial gain. Defendants intentionally and willingly
6 infringed and continue to infringe on Plaintiff's copyrights for the purpose of 7 commercial advantage and private gain. Defendants lack the imagination, 8 creativity, skills, talents, abilities and attributes required to design garments and 9 accessories for sale. When Defendants created Thomas Wylde, LLC in July 2014,
10 they started selling Plaintiff's designs and shapes through that company, removing 11 any such sales from PDTW, LLC. When Defendants forced Plaintiff out of 12 Thomas Wylde, LLC, Park took over the design responsibilities, describing herself
13 in social media as a 'self-made designer'. Defendant Park, however, is not and 14 was never a designer. Defendants are not designers and do not have the skills, 15 abilities, talents, attributes, vision and creative capacity required to design any 16 apparel or accessory. Yet, Defendants ripped off Plaintiff's designs and diminished
17 the quality of the designs and product damaging Plaintiff's name and reputation in 18 the Fashion Industry. When placing the brand of Thomas Wylde on garments and 19 accessories, Defendants diminished the marketability of the Plaintiff's designs and 20 shapes. In order to sell garments and accessories, Defendants designed and 21

1 manufactured grossly inferior products using Plaintiff's copyright protected prints
2 to make the inferior garments look like the high-priced garments and accessories
3 identified as Plaintiff's and for which Plaintiff alone has gained much recognition
4 and praise, thereby leading to confusion and mistakes in the marketplace. This
5 scheme and conduct violates 17 U.S.C §506(a).
6
7

8 B. Requested Remedies

9
10 52. Furthermore, Plaintiff requests that the United States District Court
11 impound the following under 17 U.S.C. §§ 502, 503. Under the former statute:

12 (a) Any court having jurisdiction of a civil action arising under this 13 title may, subject to the provisions of section 1498 of title 28, grant 14 temporary and final injunctions on such terms as it may deem 15 reasonable to prevent or restrain infringement of a copyright.
16
17

18 (b) Any such injunction may be served anywhere in the United States
19 on the person enjoined; it shall be operative throughout the United 20 States and shall be enforceable, by proceedings in contempt or 21 otherwise, by any United States court having jurisdiction of that 22 person. The clerk of the court granting the injunction shall, when 23 requested by any other court in which enforcement of the injunction is 24 sought, transmit promptly to the other court a certified copy of all the 25 papers in the case on file in such clerk's office.
26
27
28

ORIGINAL SUBMITTED TO

1 53. Under the latter statute:

2 all copies or phono records claimed to have been made or used in
3
4 violation of the exclusive right of the copyright owner;

5 (B) of all plates, molds, matrices, masters, tapes, film negatives, or 6
7 other articles by means of which such copies or phono records may be 8 reproduced; and

9 (C) of records documenting the manufacture, sale, or receipt of things
10
11 involved in any such violation.

12 54. Plaintiff seeks remedies that also include (a) forfeiture, (b) destruction
13
14 of replica clothes infringing on Plaintiff's copyrights, and (c) restitution of all
15 proceeds Defendants received from the sale of any garment that Plaintiff did not 16 design but has Plaintiff's copyright protected printed fabrics.

17
18 55. Plaintiff also seeks monetary damages in the form of actual damages or 19 statutory damages under 17 U.S.C. §504 depending on the development of 20 evidence through discovery, an accounting of the books and records for all 21 Defendants, and an inspection of the inventory of all apparel. Plaintiff will also 22 seek damages under 17 U.S.C 504(d).

23
24
25 56. Plaintiff also seeks to have all apparel Defendants designed and 26 marketed destroyed:

1 (a) Rights of attribution and integrity. Subject to section
2 107 [17 USCS § 107] and independent of the exclusive rights
3 provided in section 106 [17 USCS § 106], the author of a work of 4 visual art--
5

6 (1) shall have the right--
7

8 (A) to claim authorship of that work, and
9

10 (B) to prevent the use of his or her name as the author of any work of 11 visual art which he or she did not create;
12

13 (2) shall have the right to prevent the use of his or her name as the 14 author of the work of visual art in the event of a distortion, mutilation, 15 or other modification of the work which would be prejudicial to his or 16 her honor or reputation; and 17

18 (3) subject to the limitations set forth in section 113(d) [17 USCS §
19 113(d)], shall have the right--
20

21 (A) to prevent any intentional distortion, mutilation, or other
22 modification of that work which would be prejudicial to his or her
23 honor or reputation, and any intentional distortion, mutilation, or 24 modification of that work is a violation of that right, and 25
26
27
28

1 (B) to prevent any destruction of a work of recognized stature, and
2 any intentional or grossly negligent destruction of that work is a
3 violation of that right.
4

5 57. These remedies are more than justified because Plaintiff has 6 suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable harm: Defendants have 7 diluted and continue to dilute the value of the Thomas Wylde brand and the 8 Paula Thomas name by selling grossly inferior garments to the public with 9 symbols, names, words, and prints that are exclusively associated with 10 Plaintiff and Plaintiff's brand Thomas Wylde. Plaintiff has lost and will 11 continue to lose the economic and financial benefits of her name and the 12 name of Thomas Wylde.
13
14
15

16 58. Plaintiff seeks the following as part of the District's Court
17 Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction:
18

- 19 a. Defendants are prohibited from selling any apparel and accessories,
20 including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry,
21 scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both
22 registered and in common law;
23
24 b. Defendants are prohibited from designing any apparel and accessories,
25 including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry,
26
27
28

1 scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both
2 registered and in common law;

- 3
- 4 c. Defendants are prohibited from creating, developing and advertising on
5 print, commercials, photographs, and web-sites/internet any apparel and
6 accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear,
7 jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and
8 copyrights, both registered and in common law;
- 9
- 10
- 11 d. Defendants are prohibited from designing, manufacturing, distributing,
12 selling at retail, fashion shows and wholesale stores of any apparel and
13 accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear,
14 jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and 15 copyrights, both registered and in common law;
- 16
- 17
- 18 e. Defendants are Ordered to search for, collect, gather, assemble and store in 19 one location that is convenient for Plaintiff to conduct an inspection of all
20 apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear,
21 headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks
22 and copyrights, both registered and in common law, as well as
23 advertisements, publications, marketing material, and any/all physical and
24 electronic items ("ESI") that depict in any way the trademark and copyright
25 protected items.
26
27
28

- 1 f. The storage facility must have sufficient space, light, room, and ventilation
2 to protect the materials as well as to allow for the inspection until Plaintiff,
3 Plaintiff's counsel and agents/employees/experts/assistants have completed
4 said inspection, which shall continue from day-to-day starting at 9:00 a.m.
5 and ending at 6:00 p.m. every day until completed;
6
7
8 g. All apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing,
9 footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's
10 trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common law, as well as
11 advertisements, publications, marketing material, and any/all physical and
12 electronic items ("ESI") that depict in any way the trademark protected
13 items must be properly organized for the inspection by categories of items;
14
15
16 h. Defendants shall produce for Plaintiff's inspection within 30 days all
17 contracts that Defendants signed from July 2014 to the present time related
18 to (a) documents and ESI related to any and all moneys injected into Thomas
19 Wylde, LLC, (b) documents and ESI related to all expenditures, (c) the 20 manufacturing process of apparel and accessories, including, without
21 limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags
22 containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in
23 common law, (d) the distribution of apparel and accessories, including,
24 without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and 25
26
27
28

1 handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered
2 and in common law, (e) the sale (retail and wholesale) of apparel and
3 accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear,
4 jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and
5 copyrights, both registered and in common law, (f) contracts by and between
6 any and all the Defendants, as well as between any Defendant and third
7 party entity or individual, and (g) electronically stored information ("ESI")
8 in the computer systems and web-site for Thomas Wylde, LLC that includes 9 Plaintiff's trademark and copyrights, both registered and common law;
10
11
12

- 13
14 i. Thomas Wylde, LLC and all Defendants must make available for Plaintiff's
15 and Plaintiff Counsel's inspection within 30 days all Profits and Losses
16 Statements, balance sheets, Accounts Receivable, QuickBooks data, tax
17 returns for both state and federal for all Defendants, including all financial
18 books, accountings, receivables, all documents regarding the sales of apparel
19 and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear,
20 headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks
21 and copyrights, both registered and in common law, all expenditures,
22 inventory of apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all
23 clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing 24 Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common law,
25
26
27
28

1 all books and records, minutes of any meetings of officers, directors,
2 managing agents, bank statements and wire transfers of money, owner
3 withdrawals, employee benefits and wages/earnings, all salaries, and
4 distribution of anything of value to any persons having any ownership
5 interests in Thomas Wylde, LLC;
6

7
8 j. Defendants must comply within 30 days from the date the order is issued
9 and provide declarations of individuals (not attorneys) with personal
10 knowledge regarding all steps taken to comply with the Order;
11

12 k. Defendant must immediately (within 5 calendar days) return all apparel and
13 accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear,
14 jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and
15 copyrights, both registered and in common law that Defendants have in their 16 custody, control and/or possession;
17

18
19 l. Defendants must stop doing business as "Thomas Wylde, LLC" and cannot
20 open a new business that infringes on Plaintiff's rights, including copyrights
21 and trademarks;
22

23 m. Defendants must deposit in an escrow account controlled by a neutral, third
24 party all assets obtained by Thomas Wylde, LLC and/or in the possession of 25 Park, Hanna and/or Hanna's girlfriend (Tasha Hess), Choi, Gonzalez, 26
27
28

1 Schnider, and/or their respective spouses, or any other individual wrongfully
2 associated with any of the defendants;

3
4 n. Recovery of any and all Thomas Wylde, LLC's "designs/apparel and
5 accessories" that has been gifted and/or loaned to any celebrities and/or PR,
6 press/media, people;

7
8 o. Bringing back all Thomas Wylde, LLC inventory and assets, including
9 production samples; patterns; molds; etc. from wherever they may be 10 domestically and abroad, e.g. Korea; Paris; Milan; China; Russia; etc.; and

11
12 p. Take down all e-commerce; removing inventory from all brick-and-mortar
13 stores, both domestically and abroad, that carry Thomas Wylde, LLC
14 assets/inventory.
15
16
17

18 XI.

19 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

20 TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT UNDER 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114, 1116, 1117,
21 1121, 1125, and 1127 AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS FOR MONETARY
22 DAMAGES AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF
23

24 (Plaintiff refers to and incorporate the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 25 through 58)
26
27
28

1 59. Exhibit A-1 to the Purchase Agreement sets forth all the trademark
2 protected symbols, words, and names with the corresponding Serial No./Reg. No.
3 and status. The “Henna Skull Design”, “The Wylde” and “Thomas Wylde” are 4 still protected under the name of Plaintiff. Plaintiff owns this intellectual property
5 and it was never transferred to Defendants. Plaintiff never gave Defendants
6 permission or authorization to use her intellectual property. These words and 7 symbols are protected under 15 U.S.C. 1127 for the exclusive benefit of Plaintiff.
8
9
10

11 60. Defendants infringed on Plaintiff’s trademarks by using and placing the 12 protected marks on garments and accessories, including, but not limited to 13 clothing, footwear, handbags, menswear, headwear, and apparel, as well as 14 advertisements and marketing materials of designs of clothing that Plaintiff did not 15 design, and would never have designed, because such apparel is of a substantially
16 inferior quality that would diminish/dilute the name of Plaintiff and her brand
17 Thomas Wylde. By manufacturing garments, apparel, and accessories that with 18 which Plaintiff is not associated in any way, but which use Plaintiff’s protected
19 marks, Defendants have caused, and continue to cause, confusion and mistakes in 20 the market place with Plaintiff’s properly designed garments and accessories.
21 Defendants have also advertised, promoted and marketed their poor-quality
22 clothing and apparel on the internet, during fashion sales trips, in fashion shows,
23 and in brick-and-mortar stores throughout the United States and internationally.
24
25
26
27
28

1 Therefore, Defendants diluted and continue to dilute the value of Plaintiff's
2 designs and shapes, as well as of her brand Thomas Wylde. Defendants have
3 violated and continue to violate 15 U.S.C. 1125(a):

4
5 (1) Any person who, on or in connection with any goods or services,
6 or any container for goods, uses in commerce any word, term, name,
7 symbol, or device, or any combination thereof, or any false
8 designation of origin, false or misleading description of fact, or false 9 or misleading representation of fact, which--
10
11

12 (A) is likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to 13 deceive as to the affiliation, connection, or association of such 14 person with another person, or as to the origin, sponsorship, or 15 approval of his or her goods, services, or commercial activities
16 by another person, or
17

18 (B) in commercial advertising or promotion, misrepresents the 19 nature, characteristics, qualities, or geographic origin of his or 20 her or another person's goods, services, or commercial
21 activities, shall be liable in a civil action by any person who 22 believes that he or she is or is likely to be damaged by such act.
23
24
25

26 61. All Defendants conspired to use Plaintiff's trademark protected marks
27 and logos, thereby infringing upon her ownership rights. This conspiracy started
28

1 with the exclusion of Plaintiff from the initial organization and formation of
2 Thomas Wylde, LLC, only to then falsely and fraudulently give Plaintiff the 3 “opportunity” to buy 32% ownership interest through fraudulent instructions and
4 agreements that Defendants created, but with which they never intended to comply,
5 in an effort to cause Plaintiff to sign over her intellectual property rights. Upon
6 Plaintiff’s execution of all documents Defendants deemed necessary to carry out
7 their plot, Defendants wrongfully terminated Plaintiff in violation of the 8 Employment Agreement proving that agreement to be a fraud. When Plaintiff filed
9 for unemployment benefits, Defendants opposed Plaintiff’s application. Upon
10 completing an investigation in the allegations raised by Defendants, the EED found
11 in favor of Plaintiff. Defendants then, in September of 2015, diluted Plaintiff’s
12 ownership interest from 32% to 1.8%. Now, Defendants are selling garments
13 using Plaintiff’s intellectual properties, including her original designs, shapes,
14 patterns, and molds to produce and manufacture garments and accessories of a
15 grossly inferior quality and selling them to the public as Plaintiff’s designs.
16
17
18
19
20
21

22 Defendants have violated 15 U.S.C. 1127:

23 (1) Any person who shall, without the consent of the registrant--

24 (a) use in commerce any reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable 25 imitation of a registered mark in connection with the sale, offering for 26 sale, distribution, or advertising of any goods or services on or in 27
28

ORIGINAL DOCUMENT 59

1 connection with which such use is likely to cause confusion, or to
2 cause mistake, or to deceive; or
3
4 (b) reproduce, counterfeit, copy, or colorably imitate a registered
5 mark and apply such reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable
6 imitation to labels, signs, prints, packages, wrappers, receptacles or 7 advertisements intended to be used in commerce upon or in 8 connection with the sale, offering for sale, distribution, or advertising
9 of goods or services on or in connection with which such use is likely
10 to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive, shall be liable
11 in a civil action by the registrant for the remedies hereinafter
12 provided. Under subsection (b) hereof, the registrant shall not be 13 entitled to recover profits or damages unless the acts have been 14 committed with knowledge that such imitation is intended to be used
15 to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive.
16
17
18
19
20

21 62. Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief under 15 U.S.C. 1116 to stop Defendants
22 from continuing to infringe on Plaintiff's trademark protected items. Plaintiff is 23 entitled to receive injunctive relief under 15 U.S.C. 1116(a):
24

25 The several courts vested with jurisdiction of civil actions arising 26 under this Act shall have power to grant injunctions, according to the 27 principles of equity and upon such terms as the court may deem 28

1 reasonable, to prevent the violation of any right of the registrant of a
2 mark registered in the Patent and Trademark Office or to prevent a
3 violation under subsection (a), (c), or (d) of section 43 [15 USCS §
4 1125].
5

6
7 63. Plaintiff seeks a Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary
8 Injunction:

- 9
10 a. Defendants are prohibited from selling any apparel and accessories,
11 including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry,
12 scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both
13 registered and in common law;
14
15 b. Defendants are prohibited from designing any apparel and accessories,
16 including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry,
17 scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both 18 registered and in common law;
19
20 c. Defendants are prohibited from creating, developing and advertising on 21 print, commercials, photographs, and web-sites/internet any apparel and
22 accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear,
23 jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and 24 copyrights, both registered and in common law;
25
26
27
28

- 1 d. Defendants are prohibited from designing, manufacturing, distributing,
2 selling at retail, fashion shows and wholesale stores of any apparel and
3 accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear,
4 jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and
5 copyrights, both registered and in common law;
6
7 e. Defendants are Ordered to search for, collect, gather, assemble and store in
8 one location that is convenient for Plaintiff to conduct an inspection of all
9 apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear,
10 headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks
11 and copyrights, both registered and in common law, as well as all
12 advertisements, publications, marketing material, and any/all physical and
13 electronic items ("ESI") that depict in any way the trademark and copyright
14 protected items.
15
16 f. The storage facility must have sufficient space, light, room, and ventilation
17 to protect the materials and to allow for the inspection within 30 days until 18 Plaintiff, Plaintiff's counsel and agents/employees/experts/assistants have
19 completed the inspection, that shall continue from day-to-day starting at 9:00
20 a.m. and ending at 6:00 p.m. everyday;
21
22 g. All apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing,
23 footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's
24
25
26
27
28

1 trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common law, as well as
2 all advertisements, publications, marketing material, and any/all physical
3 and electronic items ("ESI") that depict in any way the trademark protected
4 items must be properly organized for the inspection by categories of items;
5

- 6
7 h. Defendants shall produce for Plaintiff's inspection within 30 days all
8 contracts that Defendants signed from July 2014 to the present time related
9 to (a) documents and ESI related to any and all moneys injected into Thomas
10 Wylde, LLC, (b) documents and ESI related to all expenditures, (c) the 11 manufacturing process of apparel and accessories, including, without
12 limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags
13 containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in
14 common law, (d) the distribution of apparel and accessories, including,
15 without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and
16 handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered
17 and in common law, (e) the sale (retail and wholesale) of apparel and
18 accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear,
19 jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and
20 copyrights, both registered and in common law, (f) contracts by and between
21 any and all the Defendants, as well as between any Defendant and third
22 party entities and individuals, and (g) electronically stored information
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 (“ESI”) in the computer systems and web-site for Thomas Wylde, LLC that
2 includes Plaintiff’s trademark and copyrights;

- 3
4 i. Thomas Wylde, LLC and all Defendants must make available for Plaintiff’s
5 and Plaintiff Counsel’s inspection within 30 days all Profits and Losses
6 Statements, balance sheets, Accounts Receivable, QuickBooks data, tax
7 returns for both state and federal for all Defendants, including all financial
8 books, accountings, receivables, all documents regarding the sales of apparel
9 and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear,
10 headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff’s trademarks
11 and copyrights, both registered and in common law, all expenditures,
12 inventory of apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all
13 clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing
14 Plaintiff’s trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common law,
15 all books and records, minutes of any meetings of officers, directors,
16 managing agents, bank statements and wire transfers of money, owner
17 withdrawals, employee benefits and wages/earnings, all salaries, and
18 distribution of anything of value to any persons having any ownership
19 interests in Thomas Wylde, LLC;
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

- 1 j. Defendants must comply within 30 days from the date the order is issued
2 and provide declarations of individuals (not attorneys) with personal
3 knowledge regarding all steps taken to comply with the Order;
4
- 5 q. Defendant must immediately (within 5 calendar days) return all Thomas
6 Wylde, LLC and all Defendants must make available for Plaintiff's and
7 Plaintiff Counsel's inspection within 30 days all Profits and Losses
8 Statements, balance sheets, Accounts Receivable, QuickBooks data, tax
9 returns for both state and federal for all Defendants, including all financial
10 books, accountings, receivables, all documents regarding the sales of apparel
11 and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear,
12 headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks
13 and copyrights, both registered and in common law, all expenditures,
14 inventory of apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all
15 clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing
16 Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common law,
17 all books and records, minutes of any meetings of officers, directors,
18 managing agents, bank statements and wire transfers of money, owner
19 withdrawals, employee benefits and wages/earnings, all salaries, and
20 distribution of anything of value to any persons having any ownership
21 interests in Thomas Wylde, LLC;
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

- k. that Defendants have in their custody, control and/or possession having copyright and trademark protections;
- l. Defendants must stop doing business as “Thomas Wylde, LLC” and cannot open a new business that infringes on Plaintiff’s copyrights and trademarks;
- m. Defendants must deposit in an escrow account control by a neutral, third party all assets obtained by Thomas Wylde, LLC and in the possession of Park, Hanna and/or Hanna’s girlfriend (Tasha Hess), Choi, Gonzalez, their respective spouses and/or any other individual wrongfully associated with any of the Defendants;
- n. Recovery of any and all Thomas Wylde, LLC’s assets, designs/apparel that has been gifted and/or loaned to any celebrities and/or PR, press/media, people;
- o. Bringing back all Thomas Wylde, LLC inventory and assets, including production samples; patterns; molds; etc. from wherever they may be domestically and abroad, e.g. Korea; Paris; Milan; China; Russia; etc.; and
- p. Take down all e-commerce; removing inventory from all brick-and-mortar stores, both domestically and abroad, that carry Thomas Wylde, LLC assets/inventory.

64. In addition to injunctive relief under 15 U.S.C. 1116, Plaintiff will seek damages Plaintiff has sustained, costs of litigation and attorneys’ fees. Defendants

1 conduct has been malicious, vindictive, intentional and willful; Defendants knew
2 that the use of trademarks owned by Plaintiff was wrong and illegal, but
3
4 Defendants simply did not care because they believed Plaintiff was too sick and ill
5 to put up a fight. In other words, Defendants took advantage of Plaintiff's weak
6 and ill condition thinking and hoping Plaintiff would just 'go away'.

8 65. Alternatively, Plaintiff may select statutory damages as opposed to 9 lost profits and attorney fees in the amount of $200,000.00 per counterfeit mark per 10 type of garment, accessory, and apparel sold. However, in light of the undeniable
11 fact that the admissible evidence will show that the counterfeit mark on all clothes
12 and apparel that Defendants created, manufactured, distributed and sold was 13 willful, Plaintiff will seek $2,000,000.00 per counterfeit per each piece of garment,
14 accessory, and apparel containing the counterfeit mark.
15
16
17

18 XII.

19 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

20 FRAUD AND INTENTIONAL MISREPRESENTATION AGAINST ALL 21 DEFENDANTS FOR MONETARY DAMAGES

22 (Plaintiff refers to and incorporates the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 23 through 65)
24
25

26 66. In July 2014, the company producing and selling clothes Plaintiff
27 designed included PDTW, LLC, of which Plaintiff owned 99.5%. Plaintiff's
28
ORIGINAL COMPLAINT - 67

1 intellectual property rights were, at that time, held by Thomas Wylde Holdings,
2 LLC, which IP rights were released and returned to Plaintiff when that company
3 was dissolved. Prior to July 22, 2014, Plaintiff designed and sold Thomas Wylde
4 designs and shapes through PDTW, LLC. Defendants Schnider and Hanna
5 created, started and organized Defendant Thomas Wylde, LLC as a Limited
6 Liability Corporation for no apparent reason. In other words, there was not a
7 legitimate business reason to stop selling product through PDTW, LLC and start
8 selling through Thomas Wylde, LLC. The only reasons that Defendants created
9 the shell of Thomas Wylde, LLC is to steal Plaintiff's interests in PDTW, LLC.
10 Plaintiff did not authorize or give permission to Defendants to use the name
11 "Thomas Wylde."

12
13
14
15
16
17 67. Before July 22, 2014, Defendant Schnider was the in-house counsel
18 for PDTW, LLC, and Defendant Park was the Chief Operating Officer for PDTW, 19 LLC. Again, Plaintiff owned and continues to own 99.5% of PDTW, LLC, with 20 her daughter owning the other .5% of that company. Therefore, it is clear that
21 Defendants Park and Hanna did not have any ownership interest in PDTW, LLC –
22 the company that was designing and selling Plaintiff's designs and shapes.
23 Defendant Hanna was not part of PDTW, LLC, becoming Chief Executive Officer
24 of Thomas Wylde, LLC upon its organization. Defendants Hanna and Park, along 25 with Defendants Lee and Kuo, all became holders of Units of Membership in 26
27
28

1 Thomas Wylde, LLC upon its organization in July 2014. However, Plaintiff did
2 not; Defendants intentionally and illicitly excluded her. These Defendants stopped
3 using PDTW, LLC to sell clothes that Plaintiff designed for no apparent reason
4 other than “that’s the way things are done”. These Defendants then established
5 Thomas Wylde, LLC to use the trademark protected brand Thomas Wylde, and the 6 Defendants sold Plaintiff’s designs and shapes through Thomas Wylde, LLC.
7 Without informing Plaintiff, in August 2014, Defendants Hillshore Investment,
8 S.A., Choi and Gonzalez entered into an agreement to make substantial
9 investments into Thomas Wylde, LLC, and they started at that time to inject
10 hundreds of thousands of dollars without any formal agreements. It was at this
11 time the Defendant conspired to move Plaintiff out so Hillshore Investment, S.A.,
12 Choi and Gonzalez could take ownership and control of Thomas Wylde, LLC.
13
14
15
16
17

18 A. Misrepresentations of Material Fact Defendants Made to Plaintiff

19 68. Defendants’ conspiracy to commit fraud by intentional
20 misrepresentations and fraud included clusters of facts that are closely related but 21 form independent claims for fraud:
22

- 23 a. Defendants made false statements of material fact to Plaintiff that they were 24 starting up Thomas Wylde, LLC. because “that’s the way it’s done”;
- 25 b. Defendants Schnider and Hanna made several verbal misrepresentations of 26 material facts to Plaintiff, e.g., that she was going to be allowed to purchase
27
28

1 substantial Units of Membership to give her majority ownership of
2 Defendant Thomas Wylde, LLC, so she could continue to be the Chief
3 Creative Director in charge of designing Thomas Wylde fashion lines and 4 shapes to be sold under Defendant Thomas Wylde, LLC;
5

6
7 c. Defendants discussed, agreed and set in motion the creation of the Purchase
8 Agreement and Employment Agreement, pressuring Plaintiff to sign these 9 documents by no later than December 31, 2014, both documents contain 10 false statements of material fact, and there was not a legitimate reason to put 11 a time limit on when to sign the documents;
12

13
14 d. Plaintiff could purchase 64 Units of Membership Interest in Thomas
15 Wylde, LLC;
16

17 e. Plaintiff only needed to invest $3,200 in Thomas Wylde for those 64
18 Units of Membership;
19

20 f. Defendants agreed to provide Plaintiff an Employment Agreement in 21 mutually agreeable form;
22

23 g. The intellectual property rights would transfer to Thomas Wylde, LLC
24 only if the Defendants fulfilled their obligations under the 25 Employment Agreement by actually paying Plaintiff the severance
26 package, which they did not.
27
28

1 B. False Representations of Material Fact in the Purchase
2 Agreement
3

4 69. Sometime before the signing of the Purchase Agreement and
5 Employment Agreement, Defendants Hanna and Schnider informed Plaintiff that
6 Thomas Wylde LLC needed money to finance the business operations of Thomas
7 Wylde, LLC, and they found an “investor” (Defendant Hillshore Investment, S.A.)
8 who could “invest” $2,000,000.00 in the company on December 31, 2014.
9
10 Defendant Schnider and Hanna falsely told Plaintiff that in order to get the 11 $2,000,000.00 investment Plaintiff had to sign a Purchase Agreement and 12 Employment Agreement. Defendant Hillshore Investments, S.A., however, was 13 already investing money into Thomas Wylde, LLC, having wire-transferred the 14 initial injection of $600,000.00 in August of 2014. Defendants Schnider and 15 Hanna then falsely told Plaintiff that she was going to get 32% ownership interest
16 for only $3,200.00, and that she would remain the Chief Creative Director. These 17 statements were false, and were intended to merely induce Plaintiff to execute 18 these documents as directed by those who owed her a fiduciary duty and whom she 19 mistakenly trusted. The “investment” was not limited to $2,000,000.00, and 20 Defendants knew Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez wanted to buy 21 Defendant Thomas Wylde, LLC for a figure between $5,200,000.00 and 22 $9,200,000.00. Defendants also intended to deceive Plaintiff into believing that 23
24
25
26
27
28

1 she would own substantial Units of Membership, but that was impossible because
2 the $5,200,000.00 to $9,200,000.00 “investment” required Defendants Schnider,
3 Hanna, Park, Thomas Wylde, LLC, Lee, and Kuo to transfer more Units of 4 Membership to Defendants Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez. Those 5 Units of Membership came from the 64 units Plaintiff purchased.
6
7

8 C. Material Misrepresentations of Material Fact Regarding the 9 Employment Agreement
10

11 70. The Employment Agreement also contains misrepresentations of 12 material facts. The Employment Agreement was a fraudulent instrument designed 13 to induce Plaintiff to sign the Purchase Agreement. The Employment Agreement
14 stated Plaintiff could only be terminated for “Cause” and for “Cause” was 15 specifically defined in the Employment Agreement. Defendants did not have any 16 intention to comply with this clause. Defendants terminated Plaintiff four months
17 after signing the Employment Agreement for no valid reason, and certainly not for 18 Cause. Plaintiff was forced to file for unemployment, and Defendant opposed that 19 she receives any unemployment benefits. The EED ruled in favor of Plaintiff’s 20 after an investigation and decided that Plaintiff did not do anything wrong to 21 justify the termination. Defendants appealed, but dismissed the appeal one day
22 before the hearing.
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 71. Defendant also misrepresented that Plaintiff would receive a
2 severance package and bonus, but Defendants did not fulfill that commitment and
3 never had the intention to fulfill that commitment. Defendants also misrepresented
4 the material fact that Plaintiff would be given written Notice of any Termination
5 and have 30 days to cure what Defendants' believed to be "Cause." All of these 6 false statements are misrepresentation of material facts because Plaintiff would not
7 have signed the agreements if these representations were not truthful.
8
9
10

11 D. Defendants "Intended" to Make False Statements of Material
12 Fact
13

14 72. Defendants "intended" to make misrepresentations of material fact
15 because of their "greed" to embezzle a substantial portion of the $9,200,000.00.
16 Defendant Thomas Wylde, LLC was NOT in a need of a $9,200,000.00 investment
17 to successfully run its business operations in the design fashion industry. Also,
18 Defendants Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi, Gonzalez needed a business in the 19 United States to launder money that Defendants Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi, 20 Gonzalez obtained to evade taxes.
21
22

23 73. All Defendants intended to not fulfil the obligations stated to Plaintiff
24 and that they set forth in the Purchase Agreement and Employment Agreement.
25 They all met, conferred, discussed, and agreed to present Plaintiff with the 26 Purchase Agreement and Employment Agreement for her signature to gain the 27
28

1 rights under her trademarks and copyright. They never had the intention of
2 honoring the Employment Agreement and Purchasing Agreement. Defendants
3 never had the intention of allowing Plaintiff to purchase and maintain a 32%
4 ownership interest in Thomas Wylde, LLC, transferring 64 units of membership to 5 make her a substantial holder. From the moment Plaintiff signed the Purchase
6 Agreement and Employment Agreement, Defendants started hostile campaign
7 designed to demoralize Plaintiff and to drive her to give Defendants "Cause" to 8 terminate her, or, in the alternative, to have Plaintiff voluntarily resign. This
9 hostile campaign consisted of Hanna verbally berating Plaintiff, insulting her
10 creative ideas as unmarketable, insulting Plaintiff in public to Plaintiff's colleagues
11 and friends, and taking steps to find a replacement for Plaintiff without Plaintiff's 12 knowledge. Without any cause whatsoever, Defendants terminated Plaintiff on or 13 about April 20, 2015 – four months after Plaintiff signed the Purchase Agreement
14 and Employment Agreement. Exhibit "3" is a true and correct copy of the letter
15 and e-mail exchange between Plaintiff's employment lawyer and Defendant
16 Hanna. Exhibit "3" constitutes conclusive proof and undisputed evidence that 17 Defendants violated both the Employment Agreement and the Purchase Agreement
18 and that there was not any legitimate basis for the termination.

26 74. Evidence of "intent" to deceive is memorialized in the termination e-
27 mail that Defendant Schnider prepared. First, Defendant Schnider does not state
28

1 any reason for the termination consistent with the definition of "Cause" as defined
2 in the Employment Agreement, Clause 9. Second, Defendant Schnider did not
3 give written notice to Plaintiff, nor did they provide Plaintiff 30 days to correct any
4 lack of performance as required by the Employment Agreement. Even if the e-
5 mail from Defendant Schnider could be reasonably accepted as containing a
6 legitimate reason for terminating Plaintiff for cause, he did not give Plaintiff proper
7 notice of such "Cause" or the contractual 30 days from the date of the e-mail to 8 reasonably cure the conduct consisting "Cause." Defendants' conduct from April
9 20, 2015 to approximately May 14, 2015 was so contradictory it is almost 10 laughable if it was not so serious an infringement. Defendants informed Plaintiff
11 not to come back to work in the April 20, 2015 e-mail, but Defendants then send 12 another correspondence on May 14, 2015 fabricating reasons for the termination, 13 stating Plaintiff had abandoned her position, among other false statements. These 14 two items of correspondence are sufficient evidence to prove "intent."

15
16
17
18
19
20
21 75. Furthermore, counsel for Defendants fabricated a letter nearly 30 days
22 after Plaintiff's receipt of the terminating e-mail making further false allegations in 23 his effort to fabricate alleged facts justifying the termination for "Cause."
24 Defendants' fraudulent purpose is revealed by the fact that termination for "Cause"
25 required giving Plaintiff proper written notice before termination and giving 26
27
28

1 Plaintiff 30 days to cure. The letter does not contain any offer to allow Plaintiff to
2 cure. The letter is only more evidence of “intent” to deceive.
3

4 76. Defendant Park soon took over Plaintiff’s position as Chief Creative
5 Director, a taking that was announced in the L.A. Times. Defendant Park does not
6 have a creative bone in her body and lacks the necessary skills, talents, attributes,
7 abilities, experience and imagination to design any marketable clothes or apparel,
8 such as the designs and shapes for which Thomas Wylde became famous when
9 under Plaintiff’s watch and guidance.
10
11

12 E. Plaintiff did not have any “Knowledge” that the Statements of 13 Material Fact Were False
14

15 77. Plaintiff was not privy to any communication exchange by and 16 between the Defendants, and, consequently was precluded from obtaining 17 any information regarding the statements of material fact. Defendant
18 Schnider, an attorney working in-house for Thomas Wylde, LLC, and 19 Defendant Hanna dealt with the business side of Defendant Thomas Wylde, 20 LLC. Plaintiff focused on the creative side of the business, creating the 21 designs and shapes, and organizing the lines to be introduced for the 22 upcoming fashion season, and, as such, Plaintiff was not in the business side
23 of Thomas Wylde, LLC. Plaintiff did not have any knowledge that 24
25
26
27

28 Defendants were not going to honor the verbal and written terms and

1 conditions of the Purchase Agreement and the Employment Agreement.
2 Defendants never told Plaintiff they were going to accept up to
3 $9,200,000.00 as an "investment." Defendants never informed Plaintiff that 4 Defendants were going to dilute her shares in Thomas Wylde, LLC, some
5 they did within 5 months from having wrongfully terminated her. Plaintiff
6 did not know that Defendants simply wanted to wrongfully take her
7 professional identity, her legacy and her property, including her trademark 8 and copyright-protected items to counterfeit the same on garments and 9 accessories of grossly poor quality.
10
11
12

13
14 F. Defendants Knew that Plaintiff Lacked Knowledge that the 15 Statements of Material Facts Were False

16 79. For a substantial portion of the time between July 2014 and December
17 2014, Plaintiff was not available due to her illness. Defendants took advantage of 18 Plaintiff's poor health by working and conspiring behind Plaintiff's back, not 19 openly discussing any part of their plan, conspiracy and/or criminal enterprise.
20 Defendants did not make Plaintiff privy to any conversations, communications,
21 deals and/or e-mails containing information about the false misrepresentations.
22 Plaintiff continuously focused on the creative side of Thomas Wylde, the aspect of 23 the business that is her passion. Plaintiff trusted Defendant Thomas Wylde, LLC, 24 Schnider, Hanna and Park because they operated the business and administrative 25
26
27
28

1 side of Thomas Wylde, LLC that allowed Plaintiff to pursue her creative goals.
2 When Defendants Schnider and Hanna informed Plaintiff that they were folding
3 Thomas Wylde Holding, Inc. they merely told her it was the right thing to do.
4 They did not even consult with Plaintiff before establishing Thomas Wylde, LLC.
5

6
7 G. Plaintiff Reasonably Relied on Defendants Verbal and Written
8 Communications that were Fraudulent

9
10 80. Plaintiff is not a business person. Plaintiff lacks experience as a 11 business person experienced with the day-to-day operations of a company that is 12 quickly growing. She has never negotiated a Purchase Agreement or an
13 Employment Agreement. She does not understand the differences between a
14 corporation, limited liability corporation or company, and partnerships. She does
15 not know when it is wise to close down one corporation and open another 16 corporation, and the people she trusted to explain these aspects to her and to “have 17 her back” in the day-to-day operations of Thomas Wylde, LLC, failed her.
18

19 Defendant Schnider was the in-house attorney for Defendant Thomas Wylde, LLC
20 and Hanna was the CEO. They have much more business and legal experience
21 than Plaintiff – who has very little, if any. There was not any reason to doubt
22 Defendants’ statements. Defendant Schnider even referred Plaintiff to an attorney
23 with regard to PDTW, which attorney then represented Plaintiff in the negotiation 24 of the terms and conditions of the packet of documents to be signed before end of 25
26
27
28

1 year 2014, including the Employment Agreement that was an essential part of the 2 Purchase Agreement.
3

4 H. Plaintiff Sustained and Continues to Sustain Harm and Damages

5 81. Defendants caused and continue to cause Plaintiff irreparable harm:
6 personal, medical, professional, as well as financial and past/future economic
7 harm. Defendants have stolen Plaintiff's legacy and property, including her
8 trademarks and copyrights. Defendants' fraudulent conduct was and continues to 9 be a substantial factor in causing Plaintiff's harm and damages in the form of 10 actual damages, lost profits, and copyright/trademark infringements.
11
12

13 XIII.

14 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 FRAUD BY CONCEALMENT AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS FOR 16 MONETARY DAMAGES
17

18 (Plaintiff refers to and incorporates the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 19 through 81)
20
21

22 82. Defendants engaged in a plan, conspiracy and criminal enterprise to 23 commit fraud by concealment for the purpose of eliminating Plaintiff from any 24 ownership interest in Thomas Wylde, LLC and violating Plaintiff's rights under 25 the copyright and trademark laws of the United States by selling garments and 26 accessories that falsely represent the designs of Plaintiff.
27
28

1 symbols, words, names and prints that belong to Plaintiff under the
2 copyright and trademark laws of the United States;

3
4 b. Defendants started Thomas Wylde, LLC to remove Plaintiff from business
5 operations, so Defendants could embezzle money from Thomas Wylde, LLC
6 and provide Defendants Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez with 7 a business to launder money;

8
9 c. Defendants Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez were going to 10 invest a lot more money than $2,000,000.00 (up to $9,200,000.00) and were 11 going to take Plaintiff's 64 Units of Membership by diluting her ownership
12 interest from 32% to 1.8%;

13
14
15 d. Accepting as much as $9,200,000.00 from Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi
16 and Gonzalez as an "investment";

17
18 e. As part of their plan, Defendants were going to engage in a campaign of 19 harassment and discrimination to force Plaintiff to leave the business;

20
21 f. Defendants did not have any intention of complying with the Employment
22 Agreement including but not limited to (i) giving Plaintiff a severance
23 package that included $300,000.00 per year for three years, and bonus, (ii)
24 termination only upon Cause that was specifically identified, and (iii) written 25 notice of termination with 30 days to cure;

26
27 g. Not honor the terms and condition of the Purchase Agreement;

- h. Defendants intended to use Plaintiff's copyright and trademark –protected symbols, logos, prints, names, and words to sell garments and accessories that Plaintiff did not design;
- i. Take money out of the company for their own personal gain;
- j. Allow the company to be used as a business to launder money for Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez;
- k. Conceal the fact that Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez started to make “investments” in August 2014, with the initial injection of $600,000.00, in Thomas Wylde, LLC;
- l. Thomas Wylde, LLC was created to be used as a conduit for the sale of garments and accessories not designed by Plaintiff and to launder money/commit tax evasion;
- m. Terminate Plaintiff on false pretenses;
- n. Sell off garments and accessories that Plaintiff designed at extraordinarily discounted prices that diminish and devalue Plaintiff's brand Thomas Wylde and Plaintiff's original designs and shapes.

C. Defendants Intended to Conceal Material Facts from Plaintiff

85. The very short period of time between Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez' investments into Defendant Thomas Wylde, LLC starting in August 2014 (approximately $600,000.00) and the time of Plaintiff's termination

1 on April 20, 2015 (eight months) shows an “intent” to defraud by concealment.

2 The many actions, events, and transactions that occurred in this short period of
3 time are also indicative of an intent to commit fraud by concealment:
4

- 5 a. Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez negotiated with the other
6 Defendants for an “investment” in August 2014;
7
- 8 b. Defendants Schnider and Hanna dissolved Thomas Wylde Holding, Inc. for 9 no apparent legitimate reason in January 27, 2015, only after having paid off
10 the loan from CBC Partners I, LLC on January 7, 2015, thinking Plaintiff’s
11 intellectual property rights would transfer to Thomas Wylde, LLC, instead
12 of to Plaintiff.
13
- 14 c. Defendants Schnider and Hanna establish Thomas Wylde, LLC in July 2014
15 to engage in fraudulent activities;
16
- 17 d. Defendants Schnider and Hanna finally inform Plaintiff that they created
18 Defendant Thomas Wylde, LLC, but reasons are not understandable, in 19 October 2014;
20
- 21 e. While Plaintiff is ill, Defendants Schnider and Hanna discuss with Plaintiff
22 that Hillshore Investment, Inc. is “investing” $2,000,000.00 in Defendant
23 Thomas Wylde, LLC in November 2014;
24
- 25 f. Defendants Schnider and Hanna hastily put together a series of docuemnts,
26 including Purchase Agreement and Employment Agreement, and an 27
28

1 Amended Operating Agreement for Thomas Wylde, LLC, that contain terms
2 and conditions with which the Defendants do not intend comply;

3
4 g. Defendants demand that Plaintiff sign the agreements before the end of 5 2014;

6
7 h. Defendants engage in a hostile campaign of harassment and discrimination
8 from January 2015 to April 2015 in an attempt to compel Plaintiff's
9 voluntary resignation;

10
11 i. By April 15, 2015, five days before Plaintiff was wrongfully terminated
12 without cause, Defendants Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez 13 wire transferred $3,200,000.00 million into bank accounts in the name of 14 Thomas Wylde, LLC;

15
16 j. Defendants terminate Plaintiff on April 20, 2015;

17
18 k. Defendants dilute Plaintiff's ownership interest in Thomas Wylde, LLC
19 from 32% to 1.8%, while Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez
20 "invest" an additional $4 million into Defendant Thomas Wylde, LLC.
21

22 D. Defendants Had Actual Knowledge that Plaintiff did not know about
23 the Concealment of Material Facts
24

25 86. As in any conspiracy and "criminal enterprise", Defendants created a
26 plan and took steps to achieve the desired goal in "silence." In this case, 27 Defendants did not disclose, as obligated, any of the materials facts that they 28

1 concealed. Defendants did not share with Plaintiff any writings, e-mails,
2 communications and details of meetings between all Defendants. Only the
3 Defendants had personal knowledge of the details of the conspiracy and “criminal 4 enterprise”, concealing all material facts from Plaintiff of their plan to commit the 5 frauds.
6

7
8 E. Plaintiff Did Not Know and Could Not Have Known of the Material
9 Facts that Defendants Concealed
10

11 87. There was no reason for Plaintiff to believe that Defendants were 12 conspiring to conceal material facts to steal her own company and to sell copies of 13 her designs that were grossly inferior with symbols, names, words and prints 14 belonging to her and which were protected by the copyright and trademark laws of 15 the United States. Plaintiff trusted Defendants were people who had Thomas
16 Wylde’s and Plaintiff’s best interest at heart, that they were operating her business 17 legally and in good faith, allowing her to focus on the creative aspect of the 18 business, the creation of designs and shapes. Defendants never made any 19 statements revealing the concealed material facts; Defendants never exposed or 20 revealed to Plaintiff any writings of statements revealing the concealed material
21 facts. Defendants never engaged in any behavior in front of Plaintiff that would 22 raise suspicion of concealment of material facts.
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 F. Plaintiff Reasonably Relied on Defendants Verbal and Written
2 Communications that were Fraudulent
3

4 88. Plaintiff is not a business person. Plaintiff lacks experience as a
5 business person. She has never negotiated a Purchase Agreement or an
6 Employment Agreement. She does not understand the differences between a
7 corporation, limited liability corporation or company, and partnerships. She does
8 not know when it is wise to dissolve a corporation and open another corporation.
9 Defendant Schnider was the in-house attorney for Defendant Thomas Wylde, LLC
10 and Hanna was the CFO. They have much more business experience than Plaintiff
11 – who has very little, if any. There was not any legitimate reason to doubt
12 Defendants' statements and advise. Defendant Schnider even referred Plaintiff to 13 the attorney, who also negotiated the terms and conditions of the Employment
14 Agreement that was an essential part of the Purchase Agreement.
15
16
17
18

19 G. Plaintiff Sustained and continues to sustain Harm and Damages
20

21 81. Defendants caused and continue to cause Plaintiff irreparable harm:
22 personal, medical, professional, as well as financial and past/future economic 23 harm. Defendants have stolen Plaintiff's professional identity, her legacy, and her
24 trademark and copyright-protected property. Defendants' fraudulent conduct was 25 a substantial factor in causing and continuing to cause Plaintiff's harm and 26 damages.
27
28

XIV.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

RACKETEERING INFLUENCE CORRUPTION ORGANIZATION ACT

(“RICO”) AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

(Plaintiff refers to and incorporate the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 81)

82. Defendants’ fraudulent schemes were and are part of a “criminal enterprise” that involved hundreds of “racketeering activities” as part of a “pattern of racketeering” involving commerce across both interstate and international lines from Los Angeles to Panama/Spain and Europe, Asia and back to the United States. The racketeering activities include: mail fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1341; wire fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1343; criminal infringement of copyright in violation of 17 U.S.C. §506; engaging in monetary transaction in property derived from specified unlawful activities in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1957; interstate transportation of stolen property in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§2314 and 2315; and trafficking in goods bearing counterfeit marks in violation of 18 U.S.C. §2320.

83. A criminal enterprise was formed in July 2014 for the specific purpose of removing Plaintiff from any connection to any business involved in the design and sale of apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing,

1 footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's
2 trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common law, under the Thomas
3 Wylde brand. This criminal enterprise was set in motion so Defendants Schnider,
4 Hanna and Park could make/embezzle more money from Thomas Wylde, LLC.
5 Furthermore, this criminal enterprise was started to help Defendants Hillshore
6 Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez launder money through Thomas Wylde,
7 LLC, and to take total control over Thomas Wylde, LLC as an "investment."

8 84. All the Defendants involved in the criminal enterprise received income
9 derived directly and indirectly from the pattern of racketeering activities that 10 affected interstate and foreign commerce in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1962.

11 Defendants Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez wire transferred up to 12 $9.2 million from Spain/Panama to the United States to steal and fraudulently take 13 control over Thomas Wylde, LLC and to market/sell garments and accessories that 14 are grossly inferior to the garments and accessories that Plaintiff designed, and to 15 infringe on Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights. Defendants had communications
16 and discussions over telephone line, cell phones and e-mail communications
17 regarding the details of this fraud. This fraud put Defendants Schnider, Hanna,
18 Park, Kuo and Lee in a position of taking over the Thomas Wylde, LLC fashion
19 business, allowing them to design and manufacture clothing that was grossly
20 inferior to Plaintiff's original designs, which grossly inferior garments and

1 accessories Defendants represented as Plaintiff's design by using her protected
2 signature symbols, words, names and print, as well as to sell these substantially
3 inferior products to consumers and the public through the internet, fashion shows
4 domestically and abroad in return for money paid via credit card transactions
5 directly to banks in the United States through electronic means or via wire
6 transfers.
7

8
9 85. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §1964(c) Plaintiff has the right to file a law suit
10 against Defendants and have any monies and revenue received by Defendants
11 disgorged, as well as to recover treble the damages Plaintiff sustained and the cost
12 of the law suit, including reasonable attorney fees and cost of the litigation. Under 13 18 U.S.C. §1964(a), the United States District Court can order:
14

15
16 "any person to divest himself of any interest, direct or indirect,
17 in any enterprise; imposing reasonable restrictions on the future
18 activities or investments of any person, including, but not limited to,
19 prohibiting any person from engaging in the same type of endeavor as 20 the enterprise engaged in, the activities of which affect interstate or 21 foreign commerce; or ordering dissolution or reorganization of any 22 enterprise, making due provision for the rights of innocent persons."
23

24
25 86. The criminal activities related to the RICO Act violations involve 26 layers of fraud, intentional misrepresentation and fraud by concealment in addition
27

1 to copyright and trade mark infringement. First, there was the (a) fraudulent
2 creation of Thomas Wylde, LLC, (b) the fraudulent taking of Plaintiff's ownership
3 interests in that corporation through the Purchase Agreement, Employment
4 Agreements, injection of $9.2 million by Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and
5 Gonzalez without disclosure to Plaintiff, (c) the dilution of her 32% ownership
6 interest to 1.8% by September 2015 and (d) the unlawful removal of Plaintiff from 7 Thomas Wylde, LLC. Second, there was the fraudulent selling of garments and 8 accessories Plaintiff actually designed for extraordinarily low prices and the 9 design/manufacture of garments and accessories that Thomas Wylde, LLC sold
10 that were grossly inferior and included Plaintiff's intellectual property, her marks,
11 logos, designs and prints that are protected by the copyright laws and trademark
12 laws of the United States, rights they misappropriated, used and continue to use to 13 make these inferior garments look like clothes Plaintiff designed, causing 14 confusion in the market place.

15
16
17
18
19
20
21 A. Mail Fraud

22 85. Plaintiff refers to and incorporates herein the claims for fraud and fraud
23 by concealment as one of the basis for supporting Plaintiff's claim that Defendant
24 violated 18 U.S.C §1341. Defendants used the United States postal service to send 25 counterfeit garments and accessories that Plaintiff did not design as though the 26 garments and accessories were ones personally designed by Plaintiff. Defendants
27
28

1 used the United States postal service to send these counterfeited garments and
2 accessories throughout the United States and internationally. Defendants also 3 transported these inferior garments to shows in other states and internationally to 4 promote the sale of the garments. Defendants created these inferior garments as a
5 result of Defendants removing Plaintiff from Thomas Wylde, LLC, and moving all
6 production and distribution operations to Korea. The use of the United States
7 postal service to send counterfeited garments to buyers was an essential part of the 8 fraud perpetrated by Defendants to receive revenue and income through commerce
9 and to put out a front for a business laundering money.
10
11
12

13 B. Wire Fraud

14
15 86. Plaintiff refers to and incorporates herein the claims for fraud and 16 fraud by concealment as one of the basis supporting Plaintiff's claim that 17 Defendants violated 18 U.S.C §1343. As an essential part of the frauds, 18 Defendants used wire transfers, electronic transmissions, and internet services in 19 interstate and foreign commerce to: (a) transmit an aggregate of $9,200,000.00
20 from Panama/Spain to the United States between August 2014 and August 2015;
21 (b) receive revenue and income from the sales of inferior garments and accessories
22 with the name, words, symbols, logos and prints created by and that belong
23 exclusively to Plaintiff under the copyright and trademark laws of the United 24 States through the use of credit cards and debit cards in banks located in the United
25
26
27
28

1 States; (c) communications regarding purchase orders, invoices, statements, bills
2 and receipts for the sale of inferior garments and accessories were sent through the
3 internet, wire transfer or electronically; (d) advertisements, marketing efforts,
4 commercials, and web-site materials were transmitted through electronic means;
5 and sales of Plaintiff's designs for substantially discounted (fire sale) rates that
6 diminish the value and good will of Plaintiff's work and reputation and the brand
7 name of Thomas Wylde.
8
9
10

11 C. Criminal Infringement of a Copyright

12 87. As stated under the claim for infringement of copyrights, Defendants
13 violated 17 U.S.C. §506. Such a violation is also a violation of "Criminal
14 infringement of a copyright" under 18 U.S.C. §2319(a). Defendants engaged in a
15 willful and intentional infringement of Plaintiff's copy rights starting in July 2014
16 that continues to this day. Plaintiff specifically refers to all the factual allegations
17 set forth in the First Cause of Action for Copyright Infringement herein.
18
19
20

21 88. Plaintiff requests that the United States District Court issue an Order
22 that the garments and accessories containing counterfeit copyrights be forfeited,
23 destroyed, and Defendants pay Plaintiff restitution of all moneys generated in 24 violation of this act.
25
26
27
28

1 D. Trafficking in Counterfeit Goods

2 89. Defendants have since July 2014 trafficked in goods (apparel and
3 accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry,
4 scarves, and handbags) containing counterfeit trademarks, both common law and
5 those that Plaintiff registered with the United States Patent and Trademark Office
6 in violation of 18 U.S.C §2320(a)(1). The garments that Defendants design and 7 manufacture for domestic and international commerce contain Plaintiff's prints and 8 marks, e.g., the skull, as well as names/words that have been registered with the 9 United States Patent and Trademark Office that are identical to and substantially 10 indistinguishable from the marks, e.g., skulls, and names/words registered for the 11 specific purpose of confusing, deceiving and causing the public to be confused.
12 Plaintiff hereby refers to and incorporates the factual allegations in the Second
13 Claim for Trademark Infringement herein.

14 90. Plaintiff requests that the United States District Court issue an Order
15 that the garments and accessories containing counterfeit marks, symbols, 16 words/names, whether registered or in common law be forfeited, destroyed and 17 that Defendants pay Plaintiff restitution of all moneys generated in violation of this 18 act.

1 E. Transportation of Stolen Goods and Articles of Counterfeiting

2 91. Defendants have violated 18 U.S.C. §2314. There was an enormous
3
4 inventory of clothes and apparels that Plaintiff designed and which contain her
5 signature markings protected under Plaintiff's name. Without permission and 6 authorization from Plaintiff, Defendants stole and converted these garments and 7 accessories, selling them in interstate and international transactions at "fire sale"
8 prices. The Defendants' sale of garments Plaintiff designed, and the sale of clothes
9 that Defendant Thomas Wylde, LLC designed that violated Plaintiff's copyrights
10 and trademarks far exceeds the value of $5,000.00. These sales were made in 11 commerce throughout the United States and internationally. Defendants obtained
12 and designed these clothes through fraud and conversion. Plaintiff's garments
13 belong to her and PDTW, LLC – not Thomas Wylde, LLC. Furthermore, Thomas
14 Wylde, LLC was born through fraud when Defendants instructed Plaintiff to (a)
15 sign the Purchase Agreement and (b) execute the Employment Agreement, among 16 other documents. This fraud also includes not giving Plaintiff any Units of 17 Membership when they first organized Thomas Wylde, LLC in July 2014 and 18 informing Plaintiff she could buy 64 Units of Membership without informing 19 Plaintiff the Units would eventually be diluted, depriving her from any control or 20 from having any effect in the governance of Thomas Wylde, LLC, after Hillshore
21 Investment, S.A. had invested the aggregate sum of $9,200,000.00 in Thomas
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 Wylde, LLC. Plaintiff refers to and incorporates the factual contentions in the
2 Third and Fourth Causes of action herein as fully set forth herein. Defendants need
3 to get the stolen and converted goods to fashion shows, both domestically and 4 internationally, to promote Thomas Wylde, LLC and to generate revenue. They
5 had actual knowledge that the goods are stolen, converted and a product of fraud
6 when sold under the name of Thomas Wylde, LLC.
7

9 92. Without adequate preparation for a fashion show in New York in 10 February 2015, Defendants forced Plaintiff to prepare and conduct the show to 11 display the Plaintiff's designs and shapes. Plaintiff travelled to New York with 12 garments and accessories valued at far more than $5,000.00 to display at the 13 fashion show. This scheme was created to deceive the public that Plaintiff was 14 behind the designs that Defendants knew they would be putting into the market in 15 the future, garments and accessories that would be substantially inferior products,
16 and which would result in Plaintiff losing much more than $5,000.00. Defendants
17 used Plaintiff to travel to New York to promote products that they planned to sell
18 for their own personal gain.
19
20
21
22

23 F. Laundering of Monetary Instruments
24

25 93. In violation of 18 U.S.C. §1956(a)(1), all or part of the $9,200,000.00
26 Defendants Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez wire transferred was 27 derived from illegal gambling and/or tax evasion with the intent to carry out
28

1 specific unlawful activities enumerated in the Original Complaint and knowing the
2 transactions were designed to conceal the location, nature, source, ownership
3 control of the money. The largest investment that Plaintiff sought and receive was
4 for $1,625,000.00. A $9,200,000.00 (nearly 5 times $1.6) investment over one
5 year, though nice, was unnecessary and was simply intended to dilute the 6 ownership units giving one investing group the supra-majority ownership interest
7 and control. Under Plaintiff's watch and guidance, there were no plans to grow the 8 operations so quickly so as to justify a $9,200,000.00 investment so quickly, and 9 there were no plans to build/buy a manufacturing plant to make the clothes
10 Plaintiff designed. Defendants Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez did 11 not have any experience in owning and operating any type of clothing design
12 company, and they did not know the ins-and-outs of the Fashion Industry. They
13 were not in any position to evaluate the value of the company without Plaintiff's
14 involvement in designing the garments. There was no reason for Defendants
15 Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez to evaluate the operations of the 16 business and evaluate the possible revenues, especially when Defendants Hillshore
17 Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez conspired with the other Defendants to 18 remove the only real designer and holder of all symbols, names, words and prints,
19 the one individual that truly drove the sales of Plaintiff's designs and shapes.
20 People who invest $9,200,000.00 do so only after conducting a very detailed and
21

1 careful due diligence investigation, and only to get a substantial return. The best
2 Plaintiff had, up until then, done in terms of revenue was $9,500,000.00 by its third
3 season. However, Plaintiff is a successful and experienced designer of fashion,
4 and aspect of Thomas Wylde that propelled the brand to generate those revenues.
5 Defendants Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez were “investing” in a
6 company that “designed” clothes without a designer.
7

8
9 94. The $9,200,000.00 million investment in Thomas Wylde, LLC was 10 dirty money from illegal gambling, tax evasion and derived from other crimes, so it
11 needed to be cleaned (“laundered”). The cleaned money would be returned to 12 Defendants Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez from alleged revenues
13 realized by Thomas Wylde, LLC, and the other Defendants received a handsome
14 reward above and beyond any salary/bonus. The cleaned money was then wire
15 transferred to banks off-shore without a trace of its origins.
16
17

18
19 95. Additionally, Defendants Thomas Wylde, Inc., Schnider, Hanna, Park,
20 Lee and Kou violated 19 U.S.C. 156 (a)(2) by participating in the “cleaning”
21 process and wire transferring the “clean” money to foreign banks. As members of 22 the original conspiracy they knew that their job was to clean and wire transfer the 23 funds. Defendants had the intent to clean the dirty money and conceal its location,
24 source, ownership and control.
25
26
27
28

1 F. Transmission of Monetary Transactions Derived from Specified
2 Unlawful Activities

3
4 96. Defendants violated 18 U.S.C. §1957(a) and 18 U.S.C. §1957(d).

5 When Defendants engage in the transfer of $9,200,000.00 from Defendants
6 Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez to the other Defendants some or all
7 of that money derived from specific unlawful activities. In return, Defendants
8 Thomas Wylde, LLC, Schnider, Hanna, Park, Lee and Kou transferred ownership
9 of assets and the attempted transfer of Plaintiff's copyrights and trademarks to 10 Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez. All Defendants had the specific 11 intent to commit the criminal acts specific in this claim under 18 U.S.C. §1961
12 addressed in this Original Complaint. Defendants conspired to commit tax evasion
13 under the laws of the State of California and United States through these specific 14 unlawful activities. The transactions were designed to conceal and disguise "the 15 nature, the location, the source, the ownership, or the control of the proceeds of"
16 the specific unlawful conduct outlined in 18 U.S.C §1961 as set forth in this
17 Original Complaint.
18
19
20
21
22

23 97. There are two sides to the transmissions of monetary funds through
24 specific unlawful activities. The first involved the transmission of $9,200,000.00
25 that included all or part of funds obtained through tax evasion and/or illegal
26 gambling. The second involved the transmission of funds and ownership equity in 27
28

1 Thomas Wylde, LLC that were derived from specific unlawful activities set forth
2 in this complaint that included wire fraud, mail fraud, trafficking in counterfeit
3 goods, trafficking in stolen property and criminal infringement of copyrights. The 4 transmission of these money went from the United States to foreign banks. The 5 Defendants had the specific intent to commit these unlawful activities. Defendants
6 actually knew that the transmission of funds represented some form of unlawful 7 activity and the transmissions were designed to conceal the location and ownership
8 of the funds.
9
10
11

12 98. First, Defendant Choi is a United States citizen. Second, the 13 $9,200,000.00 that Defendant Hillshore Investment, S.A. wire transferred to 14 Defendant Thomas Wylde, LLC, is derived from specific criminal activities, i.e.
15 illegal gambling, tax invasion, wire fraud, mail fraud, trafficking in counterfeit 16 goods through interstate commerce, criminal copyright infringement, trafficking in 17 stolen goods. The criminal offenses took place outside the United States. The 18 Defendants sales of inferior garments was the result of money derived from both
19 the United States and outside the United States. Defendants' fraud on Plaintiff
20 resulted in Defendants Hillshore Investments, S.A., Choi and Gonzalez took place
21 only because these Defendants wire transferred $9,200,000.00 that enabled the 22 other Defendants to remove Plaintiff. Defendants then sold counterfeit garments
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 and accessories to the public; those inferior garments and accessories were
 2 obtained through fraud, false pretense, and intentional misrepresentation.
 3

4 XIV.

5 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

6 UNFAIR, ILLEGAL AND FRAUDULENT BUSINESS PRACTICES IN
 7 VIOLATION OF BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE §17200 AGAINST
 8 ALL DEFENDANTS
 9

10 (Plaintiff refers to and incorporate the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 11 through 98)
 12

13
 14 99. All Defendants have engaged in conduct, behavior and made
 15 statements and agreements as discussed supra resulting in the violation of 17
 16 U.S.C. §§ 106(A), 17 U.S.C. §§ 201(a), 201(d), 204(a), 205, 501, 502, 503, 504,
 17 506; 15 U.S.C. §§ 1127, 1051, 1072, 1121, 1114, 1125, 1125(c), 116(a), 1117(a)
 18 and 1125(c); 18 U.S.C. §§ 1961, 1962, 1963; Penal Code §§182, 484, 500, 501,
 19 502, and 503.
 20
 21

22 100. Plaintiff requests restitution of all moneys taken from Thomas Wylde,
 23 LLC, PDTW, LLC, all moneys invested by Hillshore Investment, S.A., Choi and 24 Gonzalez, $1,000,000.00 salary that Thomas Wylde, LLC owes Plaintiff for the 25 nearly three years since the frauds were committed and bonuses.
 26

27 100. Plaintiff requests an Injunction:
 28

- a. Defendants are prohibited from selling apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common law;
- b. Defendants are prohibited from designing any apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common law;
- c. Defendants are prohibited from creating, developing and advertising on print, commercials, photographs, and web-sites/internet any apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common law;
- d. Defendants are prohibited from designing, manufacturing, distributing, selling at retail, fashion shows and wholesale stores of any apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common law;
- e. Defendants are Ordered to search for, collect, gather, assemble and store in one location that is convenient for Plaintiff to conduct an inspection of all

1 apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear,
2 headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks
3 and copyrights, both registered and in common law, as well as
4 advertisements, publications, marketing material, and any/all physical and
5 electronic items ("ESI") that depict in any way the trademark and copyright
6 protected items, whether registered or in common law.
7

8
9 f. The storage facility must have sufficient space, light, room, and ventilation
10 to protect the materials and to allow for the inspection within 30 days by
11 Plaintiff, Plaintiff's counsel and agents/employees/experts/assistants have
12 completed the inspection, that shall continue from day-to-day starting at 9:00
13 a.m. and ending at 6:00 p.m. everyday, until completed;
14

15
16 g. All apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing,
17 footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's
18 trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common law, as well as
19 advertisements, publications, marketing material, and any/all physical and
20 electronic items ("ESI") that depict in any way the trademark protected
21 items must be properly organized for the inspection by categories of items;
22

23
24 h. Defendants shall produce for Plaintiff's inspection within 30 days all
25 contracts that Defendants signed from December 2014 to the present time
26 related to (a) documents and ESI related to any and all moneys injected into 27
28

1 Thomas Wylde, LLC, (b) documents and ESI related to all expenditures, (c)
2 the manufacturing process of apparel and accessories, including, without
3 limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags
4 containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in
5 common law, (d) the distribution of apparel and accessories, including,
6 without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and
7 handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered
8 and in common law, (e) the sale (retail and wholesale) of apparel and
9 accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear,
10 jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and 11 copyrights, both registered and in common law, (f) contracts between any 12 and all the Defendants, as well as between any Defendant and third party
13 entity or individual, and (g) electronically stored information ("ESI") in the 14 computer systems and web-site for Thomas Wylde, LLC that includes 15 Plaintiff's trademark and copyrights, both registered and in common law;

- 16
17
18
19
20
21
22 i. Thomas Wylde, LLC and all Defendants must make available for Plaintiff's
23 and Plaintiff counsel's inspection within 30 days of all Profits and Losses
24 Statements, balance sheets, QuickBooks data, tax returns for both state and
25 federal for all Defendants, accounting, receivables, all documents regarding 26 the sales of all apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all 27
28

1 clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing
2 Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common law, as
3 well as all expenditures, inventory of all apparel and accessories, including,
4 without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and
5 handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered
6 and in common law, patterns, molds, books and records, minutes of any
7 meetings of officers, directors, managing agents, bank statements and wire
8 transfers of money, owner withdraws, employee benefits and
9 wages/earnings, all salaries, and distribution of anything of value to any
10 persons having any ownership interests in Thomas Wylde, LLC. All
11 financial documents produced in compliance with this demand shall cover
12 the span from the organization of Thomas Wylde, LLC in June 22, 2014
13 through the present;

- 14 j. Defendants must comply within 30 days from the date the order is issued
15 and provide declarations of individuals (not attorneys) with personal
16 knowledge regarding all steps taken to comply with the Order;
17
18 k. Defendant must immediately (within 5 calendar days) return all apparel and
19 accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear,
20 jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and 21 copyrights, both registered and in common law, as well as all patterns and 22
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 molds that Defendants have in their custody, control and/or possession
2 having copyright and trademark protections, both registered and in 3 commonlaw;
4

- 5 l. Defendants must stop doing business as “Thomas Wylde, LLC” and cannot
6 open a new business that infringes on Plaintiff’s copyrights and trademarks,
7 both registered and in common law;
8
- 9 m. Defendants must deposit in an escrow account controled by a neutral, third
10 party all assets obtained by Thomas Wylde, LLC and in the possession of 11 Park, Hanna and/or Hanna’s girlfriend (Tasha Hess), Choi, Gonzalez, Lee,
12 Kuo, Schnider, their respective spouses, or any other individual wrongfully
13 associated with any of the defendants;
14
- 15 n. Recovery of any and all Thomas Wylde, LLC’s designs/apparel that has 16 been gifted and/or loaned to any celebrities and/or PR, press/media, people;
17
- 18 o. Bringing back all Thomas Wylde, LLC inventory and assets, including 19 production samples; patterns; molds; etc. from wherever they may be 20 domestically and abroad, e.g. Korea; Paris; Milan; China; Russia; etc.; and 21
- 22 p. Take down all e-commerce; removing inventory from all brick-and-mortar
23 stores, both domestically and abroad, that carry Thomas Wylde, LLC
24 assets/inventory.
25
26
27
28

XV.

PRAYER FOR PUNITIVE DAMAGES

(Plaintiff refers to and incorporate the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 100)

101. All Defendants violated California Civil Code §3294 by engaging in fraudulent, oppressive and malicious actions as discuss supra. There are more than sufficient allegations set forth in causes of action one through five to support a finding of “fraud” and despicable conduct. Two of those claims are for fraud; two of the other claims are for copyright and trademark infringement through fraudulent means. The RICO Act claims are predicated on criminal and fraudulent conduct violating the criminal laws of the United States.

102. Defendants’ conduct was malicious and despicable conduct that Defendants carried out with the willful and conscious disregard of Plaintiff’s rights. Defendants Schnider, Hanna, and Park all knew Plaintiff and worked with Plaintiff. They knew Plaintiff loved designing and selling her clothes more than life itself. They knew Plaintiff trusted them to run the business side of the operations, so she could focus on designing clothes and her health. Defendants acted in a way to deny Plaintiff her ownership rights protected by copyright and trademark laws, and to remove her from her own company by simply changing the name of the business and issuing Units of Membership to everyone except

1 Plaintiff, then the diluting her ownership interest, interest they eventually gave her
2 as part of their fraud in the inducement to have her cooperation in the execution of
3 various document, including the Employment Agreement and the Purchase
4 Agreement.
5

6
7 103. Defendants' conduct was oppressive because it was despicable and
8 subjected Plaintiff to cruel and unjust hardship in conscious disregard to Plaintiff's
9 rights and well being. Not only did the Defendants unlawfully remove Plaintiff
10 from her own company, and denied her employment/severance benefits in an 11 amount in excess of $1,000,000.00, but Defendants also fought Plaintiff on her
12 efforts to collect unemployment. In fact, Defendants illegally took control and 13 ownership of her company and brand name, while also denying her denied the 14 ability and means to support herself. Defendants violated her rights under the 15 copyright and trademark laws to diminish the brand name of Thomas Wylde and to 16 sell garments and accessories they designed and that were grossly inferior to the 17 designs and quality of fashion for which Plaintiff was known in the Fashion
18 Industry.
19
20
21
22

23 XV.

24 REMEMDIES AND PRAYERS

25
26 (Plaintiff refers to and incorporate the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 27 through 103)
28

1 104. Plaintiff requests the following remedies and prayers for relief:

- 2 a. Plaintiff requests a Temporary Restraining Order, Preliminary and 3 Permanent Injunction:
4
- 5 b. Defendants are prohibited from selling any apparel and accessories,
6 including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry,
7 scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both
8 registered and in common law;
9
- 10 c. Defendants are prohibited from designing any apparel and accessories,
11 including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry,
12 scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both
13 registered and in common law;
14
- 15 d. Defendants are prohibited from creating, developing and advertising on 16 print, commercials, photographs, and web-sites/internet any apparel and
17 accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear,
18 jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and 19 copyrights, both registered and in common law;
20
- 21 e. Defendants are prohibited from designing, manufacturing, distributing, 22 selling at retail, fashion shows and wholesale brick-and-mortar stores of any
23 apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear,
24
25
26
27
28

1 headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks
2 and copyrights, both registered and in common law;
3

4 f. Defendants are Ordered to search for, collect, gather, assemble and store in
5 one location that is convenient for Plaintiff to conduct an inspection of all
6 apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear,
7 headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks
8 and copyrights, both registered and in common law, as well as
9
10 advertisements, publications, marketing material, and any/all physical and
11 electronic items ("ESI") that depict in any way the trademark and copyright
12 protected items.
13
14

15 g. The storage facility must have sufficient space, light, room, and ventilation
16 to protect the materials and to allow for the inspection within 30 days by 17 Plaintiff, Plaintiff's counsel and agents/employees/experts/assistants an 18 inspection that shall continue from day-to-day starting at 9:00 a.m. and 19 ending at 6:00 p.m. everyday until completed;
20
21

22 h. All apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing,
23 footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's
24 trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common law, as well as
25 advertisements, publications, marketing material, and any/all physical and 26
27
28

1 electronic items ("ESI") that depict in any way the trademark protected
2 items must be properly organized for the inspection by categories of items;

- 3
4 i. Defendants shall produce for Plaintiff's inspection within 30 days all
5 contracts that Defendants signed from July 2014 to the present time related
6 to (a) documents and ESI related to any and all moneys injected into Thomas
7 Wylde, LLC, (b) documents and ESI related to all expenditures, (c) the
8 manufacturing process of apparel and accessories, including, without
9 limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags
10 containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in
11 common law, (d) the distribution of apparel and accessories, including,
12 without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and
13 handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered
14 and in common law, (e) the sale (retail and wholesale) of apparel and
15 accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear,
16 jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and
17 copyrights, both registered and in common law, (f) contracts by and between
18 any and all the Defendants, as well as between any Defendant and third
19 party, and (g) electronically stored information ("ESI") in the computer
20 systems and web-site for Thomas Wylde, LLC that includes Plaintiff's 21 trademark and copyrights;
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 j. Thomas Wylde, LLC and all Defendants must make available for Plaintiff's
2 and Plaintiff counsel's inspection within 30 days of all Profits and Losses
3 Statements, balance sheets, QuickBooks data, tax returns for both state and
4 federal for all Defendants, accounting, receivables, all documents regarding
5 the sales of all apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all
6 clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing
7 Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common law, as
8 well as all expenditures, inventory of all apparel and accessories, including,
9 without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and
10 handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered
11 and in common law, patterns, molds, books and records, minutes of any
12 meetings of officers, directors, managing agents, bank statements and wire
13 transfers of money, owner withdraws, employee benefits and
14 wages/earnings, all salaries, and distribution of anything of value to any
15 persons having any ownership interests in Thomas Wylde, LLC. All
16 financial documents produced in compliance with this demand shall cover
17 the span from the organization of Thomas Wylde, LLC in June 22, 2014
18 through the present;

- k. Defendants must comply within 30 days from the date the order is issued and provide declarations of individuals (not attorneys) with personal knowledge regarding all steps taken to comply with the Order;
- l. Defendant must immediately (within 5 calendar days) return all all apparel and accessories, including, without limitation all clothing, footwear, headwear, jewelry, scarves, and handbags containing Plaintiff's trademarks and copyrights, both registered and in common law, patterns, molds that Defendants have in their custody, control and/or possession having copyright and trademark protections;
- m. Defendants must stop doing business as "Thomas Wylde, LLC" and cannot open a new business that infringes on Plaintiff's copyrights and trademarks;
- n. Defendants must deposit in an escrow account controled by a neutral, third party all assets obtained by Thomas Wylde, LLC and in the possession of Park, Hanna and/or Hanna's girlfriend (Tasha Hess), Choi, Gonzalez, Lee, Kuo, Schnider, their respective spouses, or any other individual wrongfully associated with any of the defendants;
- o. Recovery of any and all Thomas Wylde, LLC's designs/apparel that has been gifted and/or loaned to any celebrities and/or PR, press/media, people;

- 1 p. Bringing back all Thomas Wylde, LLC inventory and assets, including
2 production samples; patterns; molds; etc. from wherever they may be
3 domestically and abroad, e.g. Korea; Paris; Milan; China; Russia; etc.; and
4
5 q. Take down all e-commerce; removing inventory from all brick-and-mortar
6 stores, both domestically and abroad, that carry TW assets/inventory.
7
8 i. Actual damages for copyright and trademark right infringements;
9
10 ii. Statutory damages for copyright and trademark right infringements;
11
12 iii. Compensatory Damages for fraud;
13
14 iv. Unjust Enrichment;
15
16 v. Attorney Fees;
17
18 vi. Litigation costs, expenses and fees;
19
20 vii. Punitive Damages;
21
22 viii. Treble Damages under RICO Act; and 23
24 ix. Any other relief the Court deems appropriate
25

26 June 4, 2017

27 Respectfully submitted,

28 By: /S/ Dimitrios P. Biller
Counsel for Plaintiff

PLAINTIFF DEMANDS A TRIAL BY JURY

EXHIBIT “1”

AGREEMENT TO PURCHASE MEMBERSHIP INTEREST

This Agreement to Purchase Membership Interest (the "Agreement") is entered into by and between Thomas Wylde, LLC, a California limited liability company ("Seller"), and Paula Thomas, an individual ("Purchaser"), effective December 22, 2014 (the "Effective Date").

RECITALS

A. Seller is a California limited liability company, formed on July 22, 2014, pursuant to Articles of Organization of a Limited Liability Company filed with the California Secretary of State. Seller operates pursuant to an Operating Agreement entered into on or about July 22, 2014 (the "Operating Agreement"). Other than as set forth herein, all Units Membership Interest in Seller are owned by John Hanna, Jene Park, Roger Kuo, and Doug Lee (the "Members").

B. Purchaser seeks to invest $3,200 and certain assets and liabilities into Seller in exchange for 64 membership Units in the Seller.

C. Seller and its Members desire to accept Purchaser's investment in the company and to issue new membership Units in exchange.

D. Seller's Manager and Members have unanimously approved the sale of such new membership Units to Purchaser.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Sale of the Interest. Upon the execution of this Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions herein set forth, and on the basis of the representations, warranties, and agreements herein, Seller shall sell to Purchaser, and Purchaser shall purchase from Seller, a 64 Units of Membership Interest in the Seller. All undefined capitalized terms herein shall have the meaning ascribed by the Operating Agreement.
2. Instruments of Conveyance. Upon execution hereof, this Agreement shall evidence conveyance and transfer of the Membership Interest, which shall be effective to immediately vest in Purchaser all right, title, and interest in and to all of the securities underlying the Membership Interest pursuant to this Agreement, free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances, and adverse interests. Such conveyance shall entitle Purchaser to all the rights of a Member under the Operating Agreement, including, without limitation, all Transferable Interests as well as any Voting Interest provided by the Operating Agreement. Seller may, at its discretion, deliver a certificate or certificates representing the Units to Purchaser, in form and substance customary in the industry. Within five (5) business days of the Effective Date, Seller shall record this Agreement in the Seller's minute book and shall amend Exhibit A to the Operating Agreement and any company membership listing to reflect the change in ownership interests.
3. Consideration. In consideration for the Membership Interest, Purchaser shall make a capital contribution to Seller in the amount of Three Thousand Two Dollars ($3,200) and shall transfer to Seller those assets and liabilities set forth on Exhibit "A" hereto.

4. Purchaser Representations and Warranties. Purchaser represents and warrants to Seller as follows:

a. This Agreement and any other document, instrument, or agreement to be executed and delivered by Purchaser in connection herewith has been duly executed and delivered by the Purchaser and constitutes the legal, valid, and binding obligation of the Purchaser, enforceable in accordance with its terms.

b. Purchaser is acquiring the Membership Interest for her own account, for investment purposes, and not with a view to the distribution thereof.

c. Purchaser has firsthand knowledge of the business and affairs of Seller, has reviewed the Operating Agreement, and agrees to be bound by all of the terms and conditions of the Operating Agreement.

5. Seller Representations and Warranties. Seller represents and warrants to Purchaser as follows:

a. Seller has not taken any action, or entered into any agreements, in any way affecting or binding Seller, its Manager, or Members and has full right, power, and authority to sell, transfer, and deliver the Membership Interest pursuant to this Agreement.

b. Seller shall transfer title in and to the Membership Interest to the Purchaser free and clear of all liens, security interests, pledges, encumbrances, charges, restrictions, demands and claims, of any kind and nature whatsoever.

c. Seller has received fair equivalent value under the terms of this Agreement.

d. Seller has the legal capacity to execute and deliver this Agreement and to effect the sale with respect to the Membership Interest.

e. The execution and delivery of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, and the performance of Seller's obligations hereunder will not conflict with or result in any violation of or default under any provision of any agreement or instrument by which the Seller is bound.

f. Except for any consent or approval that has been obtained and remains in full force and effect as of the date hereof, no consent, approval or authorization of, or declaration, notice, filing or registration with, any governmental or regulatory authority, or any other person, is required to be made or obtained by the Seller on or prior to the date hereof in connection with the execution, delivery, and performance of this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

g. Subsequent to the purchase contemplated hereby, the fully diluted capitalization of Company is as set forth in Exhibit "B" to the Amended Agreement (defined below).

Membership Purchase Agreement Page 2

6. Conditions Precedent. Purchaser's obligations hereunder are conditioned upon:

- a. The Company and the Members' execution and delivery of that certain Amended and Restated Operating Agreement of Company in the form attached as Exhibit "B" hereto ("Amended Agreement");
- b. The Members' execution and delivery of that certain Clawback Agreement in the form attached as Exhibit "C" hereto;
- c. Hillshore Investments funding of a Two Million Dollar ($2,000,000) loan to the Company;
- d. The Company's use of the proceeds of such loan in the manner set forth in that certain Use Of Proceeds Agreement in the form attached as Exhibit "D" hereto (a fully executed copy of which must be delivered to Purchaser);
- e. The Company and the Members' execution and delivery of that certain Indemnity Agreement in the form attached as Exhibit "E"; and
- f. The Company's execution and delivery of an employment agreement for Paula in a form mutually agreed to by the parties.

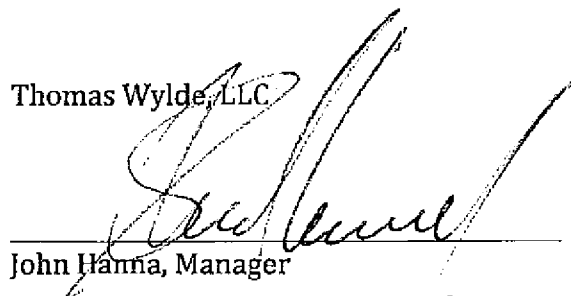

7. Benefit. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors and assigns.
8. Necessary Actions. Each party agrees to execute and deliver all such other documents or instruments and to take any action as may be reasonably required in order to effectuate the transaction contemplated by this Agreement.
9. Waiver And Amendment. No breach of any provision of this Agreement can be waived unless in writing. Waiver of any one breach shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any other breach of the same or any other provision. This Agreement may only be amended by a written agreement signed by both Parties.
10. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the exhibits hereto constitute the entire agreement and understanding between the parties and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, written or oral, between the parties relating to the subject matter hereof.
11. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal or invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction such provision shall be considered severed and deleted. Neither such provision, nor its severance and deletion, shall affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this Agreement.
12. Governing Law And Venue. The laws of the State of California shall govern this Agreement. Venue for any legal action arising from or relating to this Agreement shall be solely in the state or federal courts located in the County of Los Angeles in the State of California. The prevailing party in any such action shall be entitled to recover its reasonable costs, including attorney's fees.

13. Drafting. All parties have been represented by independent counsel in this transaction and have participated in the negotiation and preparation of this Agreement, and this Agreement shall not be construed or interpreted against the interests of any party hereto based on that party's preparation of this Agreement
14. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, and a signed copy shall have the full force and effect of a signature on any original. A copy, PDF, or facsimile copy of the fully executed Agreement shall have the full force and effect of the original executed Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed on their behalf by a duly authorized representative.

Thomas Wylde, LLC

John Hanna, Manager

Paula Thomas

Exhibit "A" to Agreement to Purchase Membership Interest

List of Asset Being Transferred from Paula Thomas to Thomas Wylde, LLC

All intellectual property rights and associated goodwill relating to the Thomas Wylde brand and designs, including, without limitation, any copyrights, trademarks, patents, trade secrets, or any other rights therein but specifically excluding Paula Thomas' name, image, likeness, biography and moral rights ("IP"). The IP includes the following:

TRADEMARKS

Mark	Serial No. / Reg. No.	Status
 Henna Skull Design	4,045,284	Registered 10/25/11
 Henna Skull Design	85/282,535	Filed 3/31/11
THE WYLDE	86/003,488	Filed 7/6/13
THOMAS WYLDE	3,283,944	Registered 8/21/07
WYLDE BY THOMAS WYLDE	85/020,665	Filed 4/22/10
DOGS GONE WYLDE	77/737,583	Abandoned 1/14/13
THOMAS WYLDE	77/622,486	Abandoned 1/28/13
THOMAS WYLDE	78/778,668	Abandoned 5/15/08
TW FOR THOMAS WYLDE	77/742,386	Abandoned 8/2/10
WYLDE	77/853,330	Abandoned 7/24/10
WYLDE CHILD	78/379,441	Abandoned 3/22/05

COPYRIGHTS

Title	Registration Number	Registration Date
Acid Flower	VA 1-344-484	04/14/2006
Henna Skull	VA 1-813-811	03/30/2011
Skull Flower	VAu 691-713	04/14/2006
Skull Pattern	VA 1-344-483	04/14/2006
Money Print	VA 1-853-563	10/24/2012
Hidden Death Print	VA 1-853-575	10/24/2012
Ballet Bowie Print	VA 1-853-570	10/24/2012
Carpe Diem Print	VA 1-853-579	10/24/2012
Goth Moth	VA 1-853-573	10/24/2012
Madame Butterfly	VA 1-853-576	10/24/2012
Samona Print	VA 1-853-569	10/24/2012
Cyclops	VA 1-907-692	9/11/2013
Louis Skull	VA 1-889-372	11/5/2013
Spinal Tap	VA 1-907-688	9/11/13

List of Liabilities Being Transferred from Paula Thomas to Thomas Wylde, LLC

Secured Promissory Note executed by PDTW, LLC in favor of CBC Partners I, LLC, dated October 15, 2013 in the amount of $1,600,000

Balloon Payment Promissory note executed by PDTW, LLC in favor of Steven John Prestemon, dated March 27, 2011 in the amount of $228,000

Balloon Payment Promissory note executed by PDTW, LLC in favor of Steven John Prestemon, dated January 1, 2013 in the amount of $131,337

Exhibit "B"
Amended And Restated Operating Agreement

Exhibit "C"
Clawback Agreement

Agreement to Purchase Membership Interest

Exhibit C-1

8+016-00001/2311643.4

Exhibit "D"
Use Of Proceeds Agreement

Agreement to Purchase Membership Interest

Exhibit D-1

64016-00001/23116+3.2

Exhibit "E"
Indemnity Agreement

Agreement to Purchase Membership Interest

Exhibit E-1

04010-00001/2511045.2

EXHIBIT “2”

THOMAS EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This contract is entered into between Thomas Wylde, LLC, a California limited liability company with its principal place of business located at 3231 S. La Cienega Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90016 ("Company"), and Paula Thomas, an individual residing at 2514 S. Toledo Ave., Palm Springs, CA 92264 ("Employee"), effective January 1, 2015 ("Effective Date").

1. Employment. Employee shall serve as the Company's Chief Creative Officer and Creative Director and shall be in charge of the Company's brand image, product and service design, function, look, feel, materials, marketing, advertising, promotion and all such other activities that could affect the goodwill of the Company and/or its products and services, as well as such other title or position as may be mutually agreed by the parties. In addition, Employee shall have the rights and responsibilities relative to her title set forth in the Company's Operating Agreement as in existence as of the date hereof. Employee shall devote all of her working time, attention, knowledge, and skills to Employer's business interests and shall do so in good faith, with best efforts, and to Employer's reasonable satisfaction. During the term of this Agreement, Employee agrees that she will not, without the knowledge and express written consent of the Company's Manager (not unreasonably to be withheld, delayed or conditioned): (i) engage in any form of activity that produces a "conflict of interest" with Employer; or (ii) have any interest in or engagement with any business directly competitive to Employer's. The Company acknowledges and agrees that Employee's activities set forth in Schedule 1 hereto, as it may be amended from time to time, is not a conflict of interest. Employee is expected to comply with Company's policies, procedures and work rules as they now exist or may be modified or adopted by the Company in the future as set forth in any written policy, handbook, or otherwise. These policies include but are not limited to policies against violence in the workplace, discrimination, harassment, and retaliation.

2. Term of Employment. This Agreement shall be binding upon full execution and shall be effective as of the Effective Date and shall continue until the earlier of (i) three years from the Effective Date or (ii) termination of the Agreement in accordance with Section 9, below. Unless the Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 9, below, at the end of the first three-year term, Employee's employment with the Company shall continue on the terms and conditions set forth herein on an "at-will" basis, meaning that either the Company or the employee may terminate the employment relationship at any time, with or without cause, and with or without notice.

3. Compensation. For the services to be rendered by Employee during the term of employment, the Company shall pay the Employee a base salary in the amount of $300,000 per year. Employee's wages shall be paid in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices. All compensation payable to the Employee pursuant hereto shall be subject to the customary income tax withholding and such other Employee deductions as are required by law with respect to compensation paid by a company to an employee. Employee's compensation and employee benefits are subject to increase in accordance with the Company's policies and procedures, as determined from time to time in the reasonable discretion of the Company, upon written notice to Employee. Employee shall contemporaneously receive increases in her base salary in the same amounts as the largest increase to the base salary of any other member of the Company's senior management team.

4. Bonuses. In addition to the compensation set forth in Section 3 above, the Company may, in its sole and exclusive discretion, pay Employee bonuses from time to time. Bonus amounts may be fixed, discretionary, performance-related, or based on a target amount. Performance bonuses may be based on the individual performance or the Company performance, or both. Except as set forth in Section 9, Employee must be employed at the time of payment to receive any such bonuses. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, Employee shall receive a bonus that is not less than 10% less than the largest bonus or aggregate bonuses paid to any member of the Company's senior management team, excluding any sales commissions or similar sales based incentives. Such mandatory bonus shall be paid in amounts and type of consideration equivalent to such largest bonus.

5. Vacation and Holidays. Employee is entitled to four weeks of vacation in accordance with the Company's standard policies, provided that such vacation shall be taken in commercially reasonable increments and is subject to the notification and approval of the CEO, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

6. Other Benefits. Employee shall be eligible for all other benefits generally provided by Company for exempt employees; provided, that, the Company shall provide Employee with all health, dental and vision insurance equivalent to which she had as a PDTW LLC employee. In the event that Company obtains key person insurance on any of the lives of Company's senior management, it shall do so on Employee's life in at least the same amounts.

7. Expense Reimbursement. Employee shall be entitled to reimbursement of any or all expenses authorized and reasonably incurred in the performance of the functions and duties under this Agreement. In order to receive reimbursement, Employee must timely provide Employer with an itemized account of all expenditures, along with suitable receipts therefore in accordance with the Company's standard policies. Any expenditure over the dollar amount of $2,000 requires prior written authorization of the Company's Manager

8. Exempt Status. Employee is employed as a salaried/exempt employee and, is not entitled to overtime wages. Employee shall not receive overtime compensation for the services performed under this Agreement.

9. Termination. The Company shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment under this Agreement at any time for Cause, which termination shall be effective immediately. Termination for "Cause" shall mean the commission of the following acts by Employee that are not reasonably cured within thirty days of Employee's receipt of written notice from Company detailing in specifics the alleged acts or omissions of Employee that Company believes fit the definition of Cause:

- (i) material breach of this Agreement;
- (ii) intentional nonperformance or mis-performance of her duties, or refusal to abide by or comply with the reasonable directives of her superior officers, or the Corporation's policies and procedures;

- (iii) willful dishonesty, fraud, or misconduct with respect to the business or affairs of the Company, that in the reasonable judgment of the Manager or a Supermajority of the Membership Interest materially and adversely affects the Company;
- (iv) conviction of, or a plea of nolo contendere to, a felony or other crime involving moral turpitude; or
- (v) the commission of any act that is a conflict of interest (as defined above).

Employee shall have the right to terminate her employment under this Agreement by giving the Company at least thirty (30) days written notice. In the event that Employer terminates this Agreement without Cause or Employee terminates this Agreement for Good Reason, the Company shall pay her severance in the amount of her base salary, bonus and reimbursement of COBRA expenses until the later of: (a) December 31, 2017 or (b) one year after her last day of employment. For purposes hereof, "Good Reason" shall mean (1) material diminishment or reduction of Employee's compensation, benefits, expense reimbursement, authority, responsibilities, title or to whom she reports, (2) the hiring or engagement of any person to perform substantially the same services as Employee without Employee's prior written consent (which may be withheld in her sole discretion), (3) the appointment of any officer that is superior in rank to her other than the CEO, (4) relocation of Employee's principal place of providing services by more than twenty miles, or (5) material breach by Company or its members of this Agreement or any other agreement between Company or one or more of its members on the one hand and Employee on the other hand.

The Agreement shall terminate automatically upon Employee's death. Upon termination due to death, Company shall pay to Employee's beneficiaries or estate, as appropriate and upon any proper showing or order required by law, any compensation then due and owing including without limitation a pro-rata portion of any bonuses that may accrue for such fiscal year. Thereafter, all obligations of the Company under this Agreement (including but not limited to salary and any other benefits) shall cease. Nothing in this Section shall affect any entitlement of Employee's heirs to the benefits of any life insurance plan or other applicable benefits.

Employee acknowledges and agrees that her obligations under the Confidentiality and Intellectual Property Agreement set forth in Addendum A survive termination of this Agreement so long as the mandatory bonus set forth in Section 4 and the severance set forth above (as applicable) is actually paid.

10. Non-Solicitation Covenant. Employee agrees that for a period of one year following termination of employment, for any reason whatsoever, Employee will not solicit customers or clients of Employer. By agreeing to this covenant, Employee acknowledges that her contributions to Employer are unique to Employer's success and that she has significant access to Employer's trade secrets and other confidential or proprietary information regarding Employer's customers or clients. A general advertisement, marketing efforts or attendance at trade shows and other industry events that is not targeted to Company's customers or clients shall not be deemed to be solicitation.

11. Non-Recruit Covenant. Employee agrees not to recruit any of Employer's employees for the purpose of any outside business either during the term or for a period of one year following termination of employment. Employee agrees that such effort at recruitment also constitutes a violation of the non-solicitation covenant set forth above. A general advertisement or job posting not specifically directed to Company's employees shall not be deemed to be recruitment.

12. "Key Man" Life Insurance. Employee acknowledges that Company may purchase, own and maintain, at Company's expense, a "key man" life insurance policy on Employee. Employee agrees, as long as this Agreement is in effect, to cooperate with any other requirements (such as physicals or execution of documents) for maintaining any such insurance policy. If Company elects to terminate such policy, to the extent legally possible it will permit Paula to assume all rights and obligations under the policy instead.

13. Intellectual Property and Confidentiality. By signing below, you agree and acknowledge that your execution of the Intellectual Property and Confidentiality Agreement attached hereto as Addendum A is a material condition of this Agreement.

14. Audit Rights. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of three years thereafter, Employee shall have unfettered access to the books and records of the Company and any successor and assign solely to confirm the Company's compliance with the terms of this Agreement. Such audit shall be at Employee's sole expense except to the extent that the audit report shows an underpayment of Employee of more than five percent (5%) of the applicable component of her consideration (in which instance Company shall be solely responsible for all expenses related to such audit).

15. Integration Clause. This Agreement supersedes and replaces any and all conflicting representations, agreements, understandings, or policies (whether oral or written) between Company and Employee that were in effect prior to the Effective Date of this Agreement. Employee acknowledges and agrees that no representations or promises have been made to her regarding her employment with the Company other than as stated in this Agreement.

16. Assignment. This Agreement is personal in nature and Employee may not assign it without the Company's written consent and any attempt to do so is void. Company may not assign, transfer or delegate this Agreement without Employee's prior written consent which shall not unreasonably be withheld, delayed or conditioned. Any such assignment, transfer or delegation shall not relieve Company of its obligations hereunder and is conditioned upon the assignee agreeing in writing to be bound by all of the terms and conditions hereof.

17. Modification. Except as otherwise set forth herein, the terms of this Agreement may only be amended or modified in a written agreement signed by both parties.

18. Severability. This Agreement is severable. If any part of this Agreement is found invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, that provision, as to that jurisdiction, will not render invalid or unenforceable the other remaining provisions of this Agreement.

19. Governing Law And Venue. This Agreement shall be governed by California law and venue for any legal action arising from or relating to it shall be solely in the state or federal courts located in the County of Los Angeles in the State of California.

20. Waiver. No consent or waiver, expressed or implied, by either party to or of any breach or default by the other in the performance by the other of its obligations hereunder shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver of any other breach or default in the performance by such other party, or a consent or waiver to complain of any act or failure to act of any of the other party, or to declare the other party in default, irrespective of how long such failure continues, shall not constitute a waiver of such party of its rights hereunder.

21. Attorney Review. Employee warrants and represents that Employee in executing his Agreement has had the opportunity to rely on legal advice from an attorney of Employee's choice, so that the terms of this Agreement and their consequences could have been fully read and explained to Employee by an attorney and that Employee fully understands the terms of this Agreement

22. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, and a signed copy shall have the full force and effect of a signature on any original. A copy, PDF, or facsimile copy of the fully executed Agreement shall have the full force and effect of the original executed Agreement.

Thomas Wylde, LLC

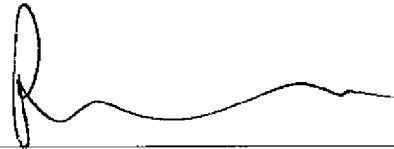

By:

John Hanna, Manager

December 24, 2014

EMPLOYEE'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I acknowledge that I have carefully read, understand and agree to the provisions of this Agreement.

Paula Thomas

December 31, 2014

Addendum A— Confidentiality and Intellectual Property Agreement

You shall at all times observe, respect and comply with the policy and procedures of Company then existing (whether oral or written) and, including those pertaining to the performance of your duties, your duty of loyalty to Company, and dealing with confidential information of Company and its clients.

In the course of your work for the Company, you have gained access and will gain access to certain information of a confidential, proprietary or trade secret nature relating to the business of the Company and/or its clients, all of which information is collectively referred to in this Agreement as "Confidential Information." The Confidential Information includes any valuable, competitively sensitive data and information related to the Company's business (and/or that of its clients) that are not generally known or readily available to the Company's competitors, including without limitation: customer information such as pricing, names and addresses, preferences, habits and methods of contacting, servicing, and methods of soliciting customers, customer lists, business plans, methods of operation and financial information not generally known to the public, personnel files, computer codes and access information, service techniques, advertising and promotional ideas and strategy, unpublished designs, manufacturing techniques, sales forecasting and planning procedures, warehouse organization and technology, packaging procedures, importing and shipping techniques, and strategic or marketing information or plans, and other trade secrets, inventions, or pending patents. Information and documents constitute Confidential Information whether or not marked as "confidential" or "proprietary," and whether or not in electronic or documentary form, and whether or not the information or documents were created or obtained by you while performing services for the Company. Confidential Information shall not include items generally available to the public, those disclosed to the public by Company, general industry knowledge, expertise and contacts and those items independently developed by Employee without reference to Company's Confidential Information.

You covenant that in the future you will keep, strictly confidential all of the Confidential Information. You agree that you will not, directly or indirectly, use or disclose to any third party any of the Confidential Information, either during your employment or at any time thereafter, except as required in the course of performing services for the Company or with the express written consent of the Managing Member of the Company, or as otherwise required by law.

You further agree to return to the Company immediately upon resignation or termination of your employment all Confidential Information and any other property or documents belonging to the Company in your possession, custody or control, whether in hard copy or electronic form and together with all copies. You will not at any time, during or after your employment, directly or indirectly use the Confidential Information for your benefit or the benefit of any other person or entity other than the Company, nor will you publish or allow to be published or disclosed any Confidential Information to any person who is not an employee of the Company.

The non-disclosure obligations set forth in this Paragraph shall not be applicable to any information which: (i) the Company has authorized you in writing to publicly disclose, copy or use, to the extent of such authorization; (ii) is generally known or becomes part of the public domain through no fault of your own; (iii) is disclosed to the Company by third parties without restrictions or disclosure; or (iv) is required to be disclosed in the context of any administrative or judicial proceedings; provided that, if you are requested or legally compelled to disclose any Confidential Information, you shall provide the Company with prompt written notice thereof.

You further acknowledge and agree that a breach of the provisions of this Agreement relating to Confidential Information would cause the Company to suffer irreparable damage that could not be adequately remedied by an action at law. Accordingly, you agree that the Company or its Affiliates shall be entitled to injunctive relief to enforce these provisions in an action filed in any court of competent jurisdiction, in addition to recovery of its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs and any other remedies provided by law.

Except with respect to "moral rights," in consideration for the compensation and benefits set forth in this Agreement you hereby irrevocably and unconditionally assign and agree to assign in the future to the Company all rights, title and interest in any intellectual property (trademarks, copyrights, patents), discoveries, inventions, works of authorship, improvements and innovations, and other information/data that relates to any of the Company's business operations, products or services (including all electronic data, other data, and records pertaining thereto), whether or not patentable, trademarkable and/or copyrightable material and whether or not reduced to writing, developed in whole or in part by you in the course of your employment with the Company, even if developed prior to the date of this Agreement (collectively, the "Work Product"). All Work Product shall be deemed to be and shall remain "a work made for hire" under the United States Copyright Act and the sole and exclusive property of the Company. To the extent that any such Work Product is ever determined not to fall within the scope of "works made for hire" or otherwise not to belong to the Company, you hereby irrevocably, absolutely and perpetually assign and agree to assign, transfer and convey to Company all of your right, title and interest worldwide in and to the Work Product.

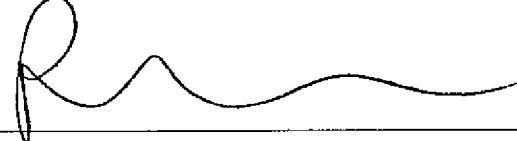

If you have any rights in Work Product (other than "moral rights"), that cannot be assigned, you agree to unconditionally and irrevocably waive enforcement worldwide of such rights against Company and all claims and causes of action of any kind against Company with respect to such rights, and agree, at Company's sole expense and request, to consent to an join in any action to enforce such rights. If such rights are not waivable, you hereby grant to Company a sole, exclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable, perpetual, transferable, assignable, worldwide license (with rights to sublicense through multiple tiers of sublicensees) to such non-waivable rights so that Company may fully exploit those retained rights in such Work Product, including to make, have made, import, modify, use, copy, perform, display, sell and otherwise distribute such rights in connection with its current and future business, in any medium or format, whether now know or later developed.

You agree to keep, maintain and make available to Company adequate and current records (in the form of notes, sketches, reports, correspondence, lists, specifications, or other information), in any form that may be required by Company, of all Confidential Information developed by you and all "works made for hire" and "Work Product" made by you during your employment by the Company, whether before or after you executed this Agreement. You must return to the Company upon resignation or termination of employment all Confidential Information and other property of the Company, whether in document or electronic form, together with all copies.

You further agree to execute and have notarized any additional documents reasonably requested by Company to effect or evidence the assignment described above and those documents reasonably requested by Company in order to apply for and obtain, in Company's name and for its benefit, copyrights, trademarks, and all other intellectual property rights throughout the world related to any of the Work Product and to transfer, effect, confirm, perfect, record, preserve, protect and enforce all right, title and interest transferred hereunder (collectively, "Supporting Documents"). If you fail or refuse to execute any Supporting Documents within thirty business days after receipt of written request, you hereby agree, for yourself and your successors and assigns, to the fullest extent permitted by law, that the Company is hereby irrevocably appointed as your attorney-in-fact with full authority to execute, verify and file any Supporting Documents requested by Company, and to perform all other acts necessary to effect, perfect or evidence the assignments set forth above. You hereby waive and quitclaim to Company any and all claims, of any nature whatsoever, which you now or may hereafter have for infringement of any proprietary rights in Work Product assigned hereunder to Company.

You acknowledge and agree that your obligations under this Addendum survive termination of this Agreement and/or your termination of employment with the Company for any reason.

I acknowledge that I have carefully read, understand and agree to the provisions of this Agreement.

Paula Thomas

Date: 12.31.2014.

SCHEDULE 1

Activities That Do Not Constitute A Conflict Of Interest

Personal Stylist

Designer/stylist for hospitality, transportation, film, TV and music

EXHIBIT “3”

Olivia Goodkin

D: 310.201.7446

F: 310.201.2334

OGoodkin@GreenbergGlusker.com

File Number: 84016.00001

May 19, 2015

Via E-Mail

CONFIDENTIAL AND INADMISSIBLE SETTLEMENT COMMUNICATIONS

Richard Bryon Peddie, Esq.
5051 Euclid Avenue
Boulder, CO 80303-2831

Re: Paula Thomas

Dear Richard:

Paula Thomas denies the allegations, specifically and generally, of your letter of May 14, 2015. We believe you have not been told the real facts, some of which are outlined below.

1. Ms. Thomas did not quit her post, ever. She was told not to come into the office, per the enclosed email exchange between David Schnider and me on April 20, 2015.

2. We reject the contention that either Ms. Thomas' employment contract is already terminated by her actions, or that she is terminated for cause. Indeed, Ms. Thomas has grounds to terminate her employment agreement for Good Reason, in that Thomas Wylde, LLC (the "Company") materially diminished and reduced her authority and responsibilities. Furthermore, the Company hired a person to perform substantially the same services as Ms. Thomas without her prior written consent. Both of these facts support separate grounds for Good Reason.

3. We dispute your claim that Ms. Thomas breached her obligations under the employment agreement, or as an employee of the Company. Ms. Thomas is also an owner of the Company and is entitled to request to see press releases of her Company. She was not speaking on behalf of the Company or purporting to do so.

4. We deny that Ms. Thomas made any false or untrue statements about Mr. Hanna or Ms. Park.

5. Mr. Jay and his associate, Joshua Sophrin, were given access to the server to obtain high resolution images needed for the Company website. The purpose was entirely appropriate.

Ms. Thomas owns 32% of the Company and is the second largest owner. She has a vested interest in seeing the Company not only survive, but thrive. She has no motivation to do anything to harm the Company in any manner, nor has she done so.

Richard Bryon Peddie, Esq.
May 19, 2015
Page 2

CONFIDENTIAL AND INADMISSIBLE SETTLEMENT COMMUNICATIONS

Ms. Thomas has numerous claims against the Company, and John Hanna and Jene Park personally. You may not be aware that Mr. Hanna has engaged in improper and harassing conduct towards Ms. Thomas and also to third parties. There are numerous witnesses to his screaming tirades. Additionally, both John Hanna and Jene Park have defamed my client by telling third persons that she is a terrible designer; by blaming poor sales on her; and by incorrectly stating that she chose the fabrics for the designs when often they were forced on Ms. Thomas. You asked me to provide you with emails. At this point, I will include one example, the enclosed email sent to Ms. Thomas by Luis at Flaunt Magazine, which discusses defamatory statements made by Jene Park about Ms. Thomas.

Furthermore, in the past few weeks Ms. Thomas has received numerous emails from customers stating that they heard she was no longer at the Company. This is not accurate either. Until your letter of May 14, 2015, where you purport to terminate Ms. Thomas or declare that she is already terminated, she considered that she was on leave—considering that the General Counsel told her not to come in the office during the time the severance agreement was being negotiated. Furthermore, and more importantly, she is still a major owner of the Company, and has rights as an owner that she intends to assert.

Moreover, Ms. Thomas is greatly concerned as to how the Company's image is being negatively impacted by the distorted messages being broadcast by the Company. We were waiting for a draft of a press release from Mr. Schnider, to be mutually agreed upon, which presumably would have addressed the issue of Ms. Thomas' separation from the Company as the Chief Creative Officer, and her continued involvement as a part owner. Instead, the Company is apparently disseminating information that not only is wrong, but is having a very deleterious effect on the brand and sales, which is of concern to Ms. Thomas as an owner.

Upon your review of this letter, please call me. As you and I discussed on the telephone, it would not behoove any of the parties to litigate their claims. At the same time, I am very confident about our position, and if we need to take this dispute to the next level, we are prepared to do so.

Nothing herein is intended or should be construed as a waiver or limitation of any of my client's rights, remedies or defenses, all of which are expressly reserved. Furthermore, the above summary of facts should not be construed as a complete recitation of the facts.

Sincerely,

Olivia Goodkin

OG/go
Enclosures

From: David Schnider
To: Goodkin, Olivia
Cc: Apfelberg, Andrew M.
Subject: Re: Paula's absence and update--confidential settlement discussions
Date: Monday, April 20, 2015 5:39:04 PM

Olivia:

Though I'm not sure we discussed it specifically, Paula should no longer be coming in and should do no further work on behalf of the company. The company will be removing access to her corporate email. A doctor's note is not necessary.

With respect to the PDTW property, the company would first like to compile a list of what that is before we decide what happens to all of it. With respect to the items in the Palm Springs warehouse, the company intends to stop paying for that storage facility and will need to move any company items out of it. If Paula wishes to maintain the warehouse for her own personal belongings at her own cost then that is her prerogative. In the short term though, we need to arrange to get the company access to that facility and to move any company items like inventory. Please advise when that can be done.

On the insurance, I have checked with our accounting department and they have advised that Paula's monthly costs are:

Medical	$ 523.94
Dental	$ 4.77
Total Insurance Premium	$ 528.71

The company will agree to payments being due on the 1st of every month, but will not accept a lien or consent judgment. Furthermore, the mutual releases must be effective upon execution of the agreement. If the company fails to pay, Paula will still have a claim for breach of contract and will be able to assert a claim in court or in bankruptcy. The company is not prepared to enter into this agreement only to have further litigation and claims if it has financial issues arise in the future. This must be a full resolution on both sides so that each can move on cleanly with only a monetary obligation remaining. The company is also concerned by the statement that Paula has heard from other creditors and vendors that the company may be unable to pay. So far as John is aware, Paula has not been meeting with any creditors or vendors. To the extent that she is aware of any that have expressed concern about being paid, John needs to know who those are so that he can resolve their concerns and we need Paula to identify them immediately so that the can do so.

Regards,
David

On Apr 20, 2015, at 2:10 PM, Goodkin, Olivia
<ogoodkin@greenbergglusker.com> wrote:

Dear David,

This confirms that you agreed that Paula should not come into the office during the time we are negotiating. In any event, Paula is not well enough to come into the office, and she soon will have another note from her doctor to that effect. Please advise John and the others not to discuss the reasons for Paula's absence or her condition, which is confidential, and not to speculate or speak poorly of her. I will send you a doctor's note as soon as it is available if you would like.

Regarding the furniture and other issues we discussed, Paula is okay with all personal property staying where it is, but we need an inventory of what belongs to PDTW and she thinks there may be such an inventory. She is also willing to forego the Rosie books (but I believe she still would like the TOPs).

She is willing to forego having COBRA covered, but will you please let us know how much the monthly insurance payment is for Paula individually?

In exchange for the above, we do insist on the severance payments being made every month on the first of the month. We are quite concerned that although the company may agree to the severance, it will not be paid, based on what Paula has heard from other creditors and vendors, which is why we wanted a lien. In addition to the alternative Consent Judgment concept, we ask that the settlement agreement provide that during the time that the severance is being paid, the parties forebear from pursuing any claims against each other (and those claims are tolled), and that the releases go into effect only after the severance is paid in full. It would not be fair or appropriate for Paula to agree to reduce her claims, be paid one month, and then only have a breach of settlement agreement claim. However, we are being fair by proposing that both sides retain their rights until the payment obligations under the contract are completed.

I look forward to hearing back from you.

Best regards,

Olivia

Olivia Goodkin | Chair, Employment Group | Biography
D: 310.201.7446 | F: 310.201.2334 | OGoodkin@greenbergglusker.com
Greenberg Glusker Fields Claman & Machtinger LLP
1900 Avenue of the Stars, 21st Floor, Los Angeles, CA 90067
O: 310.553.3610 | GreenbergGlusker.com |

We inform you that any U.S. tax advice contained in this communication (including any attachments) is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, for the purpose of (i) avoiding tax related penalties under the Internal Revenue Code, or (ii) promoting, marketing or recommending to another party any tax-related matters addressed herein.

This message is intended solely for the use of the addressee(s) and is intended to be privileged and confidential within the attorney client privilege. If you have received this message in error, please immediately notify the sender at Greenberg Glusker and delete all copies of this email message along with all attachments. Thank you.

From: Luis B <luis@flauntmagazine.com>
Date: April 8, 2015 at 9:19:05 AM PDT
To: Paula Thomas <paula@thomaswylde.com>

Dear Paula

I can not believe what is going on in your office

Jen truly is trying to undermine you in front of your Ceo

She said you force her to run the pages in the magazine after she told you not to do it which is a complete lie

She also said she was not aware what so ever of the cover initiative

She is the one that ask me to factor and pay it in quotes and totally denied all in front of john

She has also convince john that all the choices of fabrics are all your doing and that you made such a bad choices

John said you made him do the show in NYC and that was a fiasco

No sales from it and you spend all the $$$$

It terrible what is happening there

Sent from my iPhone